

CANADIAN FOOD CONTROLLER

The Canadian food controller has found it necessary to prohibit the general retail trade in canned vegetables in order to promote the sale of abundant crops now in the market and to conserve the store of canned goods for export and future use. The Canadians were eating up the canned vegetables in spite of the fact that there is certain to be a shortage for the coming season and that fresh vegetables are plentiful now.

Investigations showed Food Controller Hanna that the canners of the dominion are not able to supply more than 50 per cent. of canned vegetables for the coming season. At the same time, the farmers and market gardeners in response to appeals to their patriotism have produced bountiful crops, which are being left on their hands to spoil. The food controller is determined that this fresh produce shall be taken in preference to that which has been put into form that can be exported or used when fresh vegetables are no longer available.

The order, which will remain in force throughout the dominion until further notice, forbids the retail sale and purchase of peas, beans, tomatoes, beets, celery, corn, spinach, rhubarb, carrots and pumpkins preserved in cans or other containers. In cases where he deems it necessary or expedient, the food controller may issue licenses for the sale of canned vegetables. The regulations, moreover, do not apply to lumber, mining and construction camps, nor to dining cars, since these enterprises cannot readily use fresh vegetables.

TWO MEN DROWNED AT OLD ORCHARD

OLD ORCHARD, Me., Sept. 4.—Two young men lost their lives while bathing in the surf near the pier yesterday. They were Hubert T. Murphy of Lynn, Mass., and Wesley Tibbott of Dover, N. H., both aged about 18.

A young woman from Cambridge, Mass., who refused to give her name to the police, was rescued from the water after a hard struggle by Geo. A. Taylor of Boston and L. B. Edgar of Brookline, bathers who went to the rescue when Murphy, Tibbott and the young woman, all in the same party, were caught in the heavy undertow and found themselves unable to swim back to shore.

When the two were first observed to be in distress persons on the beach attempted to launch a dory to put out after them but each time the boat was thrown back on the sands by the unusually heavy breakers.

Taylor and Edgar, who were in the water a short distance from where Murphy, Tibbott and the young woman were struggling, swam to their assistance. Murphy, who was a poor swimmer, went down before the rescuers reached him. Both men then turned their attention to the girl, leaving Tibbott to struggle alone. They succeeded in getting her ashore in a half conscious condition. Tibbott meanwhile had become exhausted and gone down.

Neither of the bodies of the drowned young men had been found last night.

Rescued at Hampton

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., Sept. 4.—Charles H. Bowers of 98 Cottage street, Loomisville, Mass., was nearly drowned in the surf yesterday.

Bowers was about 100 yards from shore when the undertow, said to be the worst of the season, took him off his feet and drove him being swept away. Paul Rohan and James Keefe of Haverhill, who were nearby in a canoe, went to his assistance. He was taken into the canoe exhausted and a start made for the shore.

The little craft had gone a short distance when it was overturned in the breakers and all of the occupants splashed into the sea. Lifeguard Charles Cassidy and others had arrived in the meantime and the three men were rescued to the shore. A physician assisted Bowers.

The high tide yesterday did a vast amount of damage at White Island, where about 20 feet of the point was washed away and several cottages bad-ly undermined.

Lowell, Tuesday, Sept. 4, 1917.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Underpriced Basement

READY-TO-WEAR SECTION

Wash Skirts at 69c Each, $1.00 to $1.50 value.

To close the balance of our Wash Skirts, made in a large variety of styles, fine white pique, poplin, gabardine and linen, worth from $1.00 to $1.50. To Close at 69c Each

Dry Goods Section

PLAID BLANKETS AT $1.25 A PAIR—

One case of Good Cotton Blankets, assorted plaids, good heavy quality, slightly imperfect. $2.00 value. At $1.25 a Pair

BATES CREPE AT 15c YARD—

About 4000 yards of best quality of Bates' Crepes, in large remnants. All new fall patterns in stripes and plaids, fine material for house dresses and children's school dresses. 25c value on the piece. At 15c a Yard

FRENCH SERGE AT 25c YARD—

Mill remnants of fine French Serge. Assorted colors. 32 inches wide, fine quality for school dresses. At 25c Yard

YARD WIDE OUTING FLANNEL AT 14c YARD—

Four cases of Mill Remnants of yard wide Outing Flannel, large assortment of patterns, in light colors. 20c value on the piece. At 14c Yard

Men's Furnishing Section

BASEMENT

MEN'S HOSE AT 12 1-2c PAIR—

Four cases of Columbia Heavy Cotton Hose, black, 10c value. At 12 1-2c Pair

MEN'S PANTS

300 Pairs of Men's Pants, made of good fine worsted, in all new stripes. Pants made with good strong trimming. $2.50 value. At $2.00 Pair

Boys' Clothing Section

BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS—

Our fall assortment of School Suits is now complete. Suits made of fine wool material. Norfolk style. One or two pairs of pants. Special value....$2.49, $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00

Plant Juice Has Made Him Like New

Lewis A. Lovering, of 82 Parkview Ave., Lowell, Had Indigestion and Dyspepsia

That Plant Juice is repeating its success here, is proven by the large number of local testimonies received daily from people in signed statements, telling of the great benefit they have received from its use.

LEWIS A. LOVERING

Not a day passes but what numbers of Lowell people call to thank the Plant Juice Man for what his remedy has done for them, and to congratulate him on his phenomenal success in Lowell.

Only the other day Mr. Lewis A. Lovering, who resides at No. 82 Parkview avenue, and is a well known blacksmith of this city, having lived here all his life, stated:

"I have been troubled for the past ten years with indigestion and dyspepsia; had headaches, dizzy spells, could not sleep at night and got very weak and completely run down. Almost everything I ate would cause me distress and I was badly bloated with gas; had night sweats and my liver and kidneys were out of order; I was badly constipated and had taken all kinds of medicine but never got any permanent relief until I began to take your Plant Juice. I now sleep well at night, can eat anything I want and digest it; am not constipated and it has put my liver and kidneys in fine conditions. I have gained in weight and never felt better in my life. Plant Juice has made me well and I am glad to recommend it to others."

Plant Juice acts almost like magic in stomach trouble, gas fermentation, heavy, distressed feeling after meals and on retiring. It attacks and destroys all poisons in the blood, corrects diseased conditions of the liver and kidneys and restores them to normal condition. It banishes rheumatism from the blood.

The Plant Juice Man is at The Dow Drug Store, in Merrimack St., where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

EMERSON PLAYERS OPEN THIRD SEASON OF STOCK AT OPERA HOUSE

Yesterday afternoon and evening introduced the Emerson Players directed by Kendal Weston for a third and apparently successful stock season at the Lowell Opera House. It seemed natural to have them back in Lowell again.

"Shirley Kaye," an Elsie Ferguson vehicle of several years ago and written by F. F. Foster, was the offering produced yesterday, and the present company brought out every bit of its innate goodness. Here's the cast of characters in order of appearance:

T. J. Magen, a railroad king, Jerome Kennedy, John Rawson, his manager, Roy Walling, Stukeley, his footman, Kenneth Fleming, Mrs. Magen, his wife, Emma DeWeale, Daisy Magen, his daughter, Gladys McLeod, Paul D'Anchise, his son, secretary, Robert Lawrence Shirley Kaye of the first families, Winifred Wellington Egerton Kaye, her father, Charles Crambley, Carol Vallon, Mary Morris Joseph, her servant, Mrs. Fredericka "Shirley Kaye," is what press agents delight in terming a "tremendous tragedy" but does not embrace that oftentimes unpleasant element called farce, nor, on the other hand, does it bore one with "tremendous tragedy." It is a pleasant story, simply told and admirably acted, and capable company. The plot is an old one, seemingly all the more enjoyable for that reason. It has to do with the traditional western family, this time headed by a railroad magnate—and their attempt to enter New York society, after a life of first middle class culture but with the arrival of the manager of one of the paper's roads and his meeting with a pleasant young lady who is in the front line trenches of society, an effective attraction to family distribution is reflected, a pleasant love affair is developed and at the fall of the curtain everybody is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and the part "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she succeeded in getting a great audience at the opening of the new season at Keith's Theatre. The E. P. Keith theatre has gone back to vaudeville after a season of musical pieces, and if one is to take the size of the audiences at yesterday's performances as a criterion, the change is much welcomed by the theatregoers of Lowell. The vaudeville 1916-1917 season opened yesterday under very satisfactory conditions for both the patrons and management. The attendance at both performances was very large, while the bill can be referred to as a top notch.

The headliner on the program is a musical comedy entitled "The Inquisitive" which is being presented by Earle Cavanaugh and Ruth Tompkins and company. In this pleasing little sketch Miss Tompkins plays the part of a dentist, who has just opened well appointed quarters. Cavanaugh steps into the dental parlor to have a little bit of work done and his appearance as the first patient proves a great attraction to the half dozen ladies assistants in the young D.D.S. While preparing himself for the "chair" Cavanaugh sings and dances and his actions are followed by similar dancing on the part of the charming assistants. Finally Cavanaugh is induced to seat himself in the operating chair and after receiving the anesthetic he soars in the clouds and has beautiful dreams, which are shown by moving pictures. The playlet is interspersed with a pleasing comedy.

Josephine and Ed. Richards are booked as "Smart Clouds" and as black face comedians they entertain royally. They sing and dance, tell witty stories and contribute excellent music from a harmonica. Jessie Browning and Jack Denny in "Back Again" entertain with a musical sketch. Denny plays the piano.

The Bon Marché

DRY GOODS CO.

Special Showing and Sale in Our Drapery Department

Most complete line of Curtains of every description, Portieres, Couch Covers, Cretonnes, Silkolene, Curtain Yards, Window Shades. A visit to this department will interest you.

COLUMBIA WINDOW SHADES—Rust proof, dust proof, nickel or copper plated fixtures and ring pull, the convenience of the ready to hang package, with all necessary fixtures enclosed—the price of the shades are the same as you pay for other makes. Water Color Shades, 45c; Oil, 65c. Others up to $2.00.

DUTCH CURTAINS—30 styles to select from. All displayed on our Dutch curtain racks. Prices 98c to $3.50

SCOTCH MADRAS—White and ecru, 36 in. to 50 in. 19c Yard to 75c Yard

Serim, Voile, Marquise and Lace Curtains...59c to $45

SECOND FLOOR

more than won her audiences yesterday and there is but little doubt that she will prove an exceptionally popular leading lady.

Rosie Walling, the leading man, shared Miss Wellington's success and in the humorous parts of the piece he was especially good. Jerome Kennedy, as the railroad magnate, was also a great favorite of the piece with his mannerisms and his wit.

Emma DeWeale made an amusing wife of the magnate and Robert Irene showed up well even though a minor part.

Two new comedies were introduced yesterday. Gladys McLeod and Charles Crambley. Both received hearty receptions and it is safe to say that they will be among the most popular members of the company this season. The other members were also good.

Performances will be given twice daily for the rest of the week. Telephone 261.

DR. MCCLUSKEY AND MESSRS. HENNESSY AND DONOGHUE HAVE DELIGHTFUL AUTO TRIP

Dr. Richard J. McCluskey, James F. Hennessy and John V. Donoghue returned late last night from an extended automobile tour in the doctor's Oldsmobile eight and they covered a distance approximating 1100 miles in the most delightful of weather. They set out for the summer resorts in New Jersey, and went along, passing through Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, stopping off here and there looking about, and finally got to New Jersey, where they visited Lakewood, Ocean City, Asbury Park, Spring Lake, Egg Harbor and the far-flung Atlantic City, where they found themselves wading greater than ever. On the way back, much of the road can be seen and the three young men saw a great deal to interest them, particularly the growing tobacco industry in Connecticut, the handsome R. K. of C. Clubhouse in Worcester and in New Haven, Conn., both of which they inspected, but none of all they were forcibly impressed all the way to New Jersey, the stretch of 112 miles from Perth Amboy, N. J. extending in a straight line to Atlantic City. The Boston Post road down through Hartford, Stamford, Bridgeport and New Haven to New York is a splendid one of thoroughfare built after the fashion of the new road just laid in East Chelmsford out to Sprague's bridge, Billerica. Asked if the war affected the attendance at the resorts visited, they said that there was a noticeable absence of young men in the prescribed age bracket, but the draft did not hold the crowd seemed to be just as gay as ever and apparently not one obsessed with war and its attendant problems. On the return trip the party went over from New Haven, Conn., to Webster, R. I., and thence to Providence and the country about, remaining one, they say, the country around Lowell, where the hills they met in the little state belong in a class by themselves. In New York they saw the wonderful parade of 25,000 National Guardsmen taking over 4 hours to pass down Fifth avenue. All in all it was a splendid trip and the weather man was particularly kind and considerate to this trio of globe trotters.

BIG AUDIENCES AT OPENING OF VAUDEVILLE SEASON AT KEITH'S THEATRE

The E. P. Keith theatre has gone back to vaudeville after a season of musical pieces, and if one is to take the size of the audiences at yesterday's performances as a criterion, the change is much welcomed by the theatregoers of Lowell. The vaudeville 1916-1917 season opened yesterday under very satisfactory conditions for both the patrons and management. The attendance at both performances was very large, while the bill can be referred to as a top notch.

The headliner on the program is a musical comedy entitled "The Inquisitive" which is being presented by Earle Cavanaugh and Ruth Tompkins and company. In this pleasing little sketch Miss Tompkins plays the part of a dentist, who has just opened well appointed quarters. Cavanaugh steps into the dental parlor to have a little bit of work done and his appearance as the first patient proves a great attraction to the half dozen ladies assistants in the young D.D.S. While preparing himself for the "chair" Cavanaugh sings and dances and his actions are followed by similar dancing on the part of the charming assistants. Finally Cavanaugh is induced to seat himself in the operating chair and after receiving the anesthetic he soars in the clouds and has beautiful dreams, which are shown by moving pictures. The playlet is interspersed with a pleasing comedy.

Josephine and Ed. Richards are booked as "Smart Clouds" and as black face comedians they entertain royally. They sing and dance, tell witty stories and contribute excellent music from a harmonica.

Jesse Browning and Jack Denny in "Back Again" entertain with a musical sketch. Denny plays the piano.

French government which places the purchase and distribution of all cereals under control of the state have been received here by the food administration.

The decree became effective September 1. A central office, consisting of representatives of the government and of the grain merchants, has been created. There is also to be a central committee of millers and bakers. Cereals may be purchased only by French millers and grain merchants, and purchasers of grain must in no case pay prices in excess of those fixed by the decree of July 16.

Millers and grain merchants may buy local growing crops only on condition that they will not require import by railways, waterways or motors. The state will supervise grain distribution, and at all times be informed as to the exact state of cereals supplied. Grain may be sent by rail or waterway only by instruction of a government officer charged with the distribution.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulence, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend,

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

High Priced Dentists Will Tell You Not to Come to Me

Because I will not help them to keep up the price of dentistry and because inside Lowell, where we do only high grade dentistry, there are dentists the men and women who work hard for their money can afford to patronize.

$1 Spent With Me Will Go as Far as $2 Elsewhere

Keep This Ad. It Is Worth $1.00

In actual cash when presented by any new patient at my office in payment on any dental work the bearer may have done.

This offer is made to demonstrate to you our superior methods of filling

FAREWELL RECEPTION TO ENLISTED HIBERNIANS

Members of Divisions 8 and 11 of the A. O. H. were the guests of the Central council at a gathering in A. O. H. hall last night at which a farewell reception was tendered the enlisted men of the order. There was a large attendance and considerable enthusiasm and patriotism was displayed during the carrying out of the program.

The meeting was presided over by State Secretary Daniel Reilly, who introduced the speakers. The speakers included Rev. James J. Kerrigan, chaplain of the order; James O'Sullivan, Daniel Cosgrove, Major William Conroy of the O. M. I. cadets; President Edward J. Flannery of Division 8, J. C. Rourke and others. The purpose of the gathering was to accord a general farewell to the drafted and enlisted men, of which there were about 35.

Fr. Kerrigan during the course of his remarks said: "You will go forth to fight under the starry flag, under the eyes of those who fought before you and under the eyes of those you leave behind, especially the members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians." He closed by giving them his blessing and quoting from the Bible, he said: "The psalmist says 'The Lord is my protector,' so I say

"the Lord be with you." James O'Sullivan vouched for the fighting qualities of Irishmen in protecting an honorable flag such as the Stars and Stripes, and said that when Meagher called for men before the battle of Mary's Heights, it was easy to collect a division of Hibernians from among his numbers. "We are true," he said, "first to our God and next to our flag and our country."

To Go On Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Because They Did Her Good

ROCKON, JAN. 14TH, 1915.
"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I had frequent dizzy spells and became greatly run down." A neighbor advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve, and he advised me to go on with "Fruit-a-tives".

I consider that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives" and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches—"try Fruit-a-tives" and you will get well." CORINE GAUDREAU.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Frat-tive Limited, Ogdensburg, N.Y.

by the Irish Volunteer Drum Corps, and a toast by President Officer Daniel F. Reilly. Patrick Frawley sang "The Minstrel Boy" and a piano solo was given by Edward Bernard. John McCarroll and Joseph Wedge were heard in songs and Irish jig dancing exhibitions were given by Patrick Regan, P. J. Hunt, Patrick Hannan, P. J. O'Sullivan and Mr. O'Gara. George Sullivan also sang and was highly applauded. Rev. Fr. Kerrigan as honorary guest, was escorted to the platform by James O'Sullivan amidst cheers from the gathering and President Flannery was conducted by Secretary Patrick Barrett.

After a personal leave-taking on the part of the members, the honor men were taken to the platform and with a farewell from Mr. Reilly, the band struck up "God Save Ireland," "The Red, White and Blue," "The Minstrel Boy" and other patriotic selections brought not a few tears from the gathering and with hearty cheers and "The Star Spangled Banner" the men of Divisions 8 and 11, Ancient Order of Hibernians gave a real send-off to the honor men among their ranks.

Members of the central council in charge of the evening were: President Edward J. Flannery, Vice President John McInerney, Secretary James McOsker and Treasurer Thos. Dorsey. The committee in charge was: M. G. Monahan, vice president of Division 8; John Kenney of Division 11, John O'Sullivan of Division 11 and Hugh McGowan and Patrick Barrett of Division 8.

LOWELL YOUNG MAN BACK FROM WAR ZONE

HARRY C. COLLINS, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Collins of Princeton street, this city, returned to Lowell Sunday evening after spending three years as a member of the American Legion in France, having served under the French colors at the Dardanelles, in Greece and in the trenches in France. The soldier returned with his bride, Melina A. J. Soulard, whom he married Aug. 1.

Mr. Collins left Lowell in May, 1913, with the idea of travel and went to France, where he engaged in teaching English and studying French. When the war broke out in Aug. 1914, with 26 other Americans he enlisted in the Foreign Legion and saw service France for a time. Then he was sent to Algeria to join a corps headed for the Dardanelles, arriving at the latter place while the Dardanelles expedition was in process of dissolution. After a short stay the Lowell man was transferred to Serbia and remained there until December, 1915, at which time the Foreign Legion was driven back into Greece and of the 26 men in the legion only 13 survived the German attacks. During the retreat to Greece the Lowell man was wounded in the leg and was sent to a hospital for treatment.

After convalescing Mr. Collins was removed to France, where he made application to be admitted into the aviation corps. His application was accepted but the atmosphere was too rare for his lungs and he was forced to give up the work. He later returned to the infantry and took part in a number of important battles, among which that of the Somme, during which he was made seriously ill by German gases. Again the Lowell man was removed to a hospital and was finally given a permanent discharge.

Mr. Collins is of the opinion that the war will last one or two years more, and that he, as he says, the sentiment that now prevails in France. Speaking of the morale of the soldiers Mr. Collins said:

"I have seen taken prisoner young Germans 17 and 18 years old. Our service in France demands soldiers all the way from 17 to 50, but not in the numbers noted in German armies. Moreover, the morale of the French army is much better than that of the Germans. We have the spirit. The Germans, although still good fighters, are not waging war with the enthusiasm which marked their early campaigns.

"Of course there is a lot of sacrifice going on in France. The women are employed in all kinds of trades. They are on electric cars as conductors and motormen, and in the factories they are engaged principally as makers of munitions. They do farm work with all of the effectiveness of men."

"Throughout the country the morale is good. With the idea of victory ever before them, the people of France are ready to do everything in their power to expedite results. Two days a week they eat no meat. Two days a week they eat no pastry. Few bread they have a sufficient loaf of darkish bread. But there is little hunger. The idea is to be frugal that there may be sufficient for the future."

Mr. Collins said the German spies are numerous in France and a number of them are being seized and shot daily. "What you may say, he is through with the war game and hopes to make his home in Lowell."

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Loyal Warne-st Lodge, LOOF, A.M., was held last night at the Odd Fellows building, Noble Grand John Corfield presiding. Owing to the absence of many of the officers on account of it being a holiday after attending to some routine business the meeting was adjourned until Monday evening, Sept. 18.

Wainoost Staff association held its regular meeting in the same hall Sun day morning, Sept. 2. Vice President George Adams presided, as the president was absent. There were visitors from Merrimack valley and Integrity lodges of this city. Asa Pollard lodge of North Billerica and P. G. Herbert Rowley, an out of town member of this lodge, was also a visitor. Regular business was transacted and committee reported. Among the latter was the outing committee, P. G. Arthur Capper, chairman, whose report on the staff outing held during the past week showed it to have been a success. The day was ideal and everybody was satisfied with the good time.

After the business session a delightful recital of songs was given by E. Frank Bowles, who was assisted by P. G. Fred Battie and Harry Barret.

CARPENTERS' DISTRICT COUNCIL HOLD ENJOYABLE OUTING AT NABNASET GROVE

Over 50 men, women and children attended the outing conducted at Nabnasset grove yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Carpenters' District council with which locals 4, 1616 and 1665 Millmen are affiliated. The excursionists were conveyed to the picnic grounds in jitneys and a most pleasant afternoon was spent. Upon the arrival at the resort luncheon was served and later sports were carried on. A feature of the program was a three-cornered baseball game, Local 49 defeating Local 1616 and the former being defeated in turn by the Millmen. The tug-of-war, as in previous years, was won by Local 1616. Other sports were carried out such as races, etc., were carried out and suitable prizes were awarded the winners. The homeward trip was started at 5 o'clock.

LOWELL FISH AND GAME ASSOCIA-TION WILL MEET THIS EVENING

The Lowell Fish and Game association will hold its first meeting of the fall season at the club's headquarters in Odd Fellows building, Middlesex street, this evening. The meeting will start at 7:45 o'clock and all members are requested to attend as there will be several matters of importance to be acted upon, including the annual outing.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

We Have Just Received Direct From the "Scotchiand" a Large Assortment of New

Madras Lace Curtains 500 PAIRS

Imported, in white and ecru, also colored figures. We place same on sale at 25 per cent. to 33 per cent. less than today's prices, as they were bought over a year ago.

$1.25, $1.35, $1.50, $1.65 up to $3.98 a Pair

All the newest designs, easiest lace curtain to launder and do up; mostly used for dining room, living room and chamber.

Special Sale of Stair Carpetings

At Exceptional Low Prices Cannot Be Equalled:

37½c Scotch Terry, 18 in. wide Stair Carpet, a yard.....	29c
59c Wool and Fibre, 22½ in. wide Stair Carpet, a yard.....	49c
62c Printed Tapestry, 27 in. wide Stair Carpet, a yard.....	49c
80c Printed Tapestry, 27 in. wide Stair Carpet, a yard.....	69c
$1.29 Printed Velvet, 27 in. wide Stair Carpet, a yard.....	98c

All this season's new designs and colorings.

Stair Rods, both in brass or copper, a dozen..... $1.50

Stair Pads, extra good grade, a dozen..... $1.25

One Week Selling of

Rugs, Art Squares and Rug Samples

Tapestry Brussels Rugs—These are all of the newest patterns and colorings of the season. 9x12 sizes, worth $25.00..... $17.98
8½x10½ sizes, worth $22.50..... $15.98

Bigelow-Hartford Best Grade Axminster—All perfect rugs.

9x12 size, worth $37.50.....	$29.00
8½x10½ size, worth $35.00.....	$27.00
8-9x9 size, worth $25.00.....	$17.50

Bigelow Brussels—Only three rugs, good design, slightly mismatched, exceptional value. 9x12 size, worth $40.00..... $27.50

Bigelow Ardehil Wiltons—One of the finest grades woven, only three rugs, newest patterns. 8½x10½ size, worth $75.00..... $49.50

Bigelow Ispahan Wilton—The very best grade, one rug only. 9x12 size, worth $55.00..... $50.00

Lyons Persian Rugs—Exact copy of the foreign rugs, good assortment of patterns. 9x12 size, worth $87.50..... $50.00
9x10½ size, worth $65.00..... $45.00

Bigelow-Bagdad Wiltons—High grade rugs, slightly imperfect, three rugs only. 9x12 size, worth $55.00..... $39.50

Wool and Fibre Art Squares—Best grade, suitable for any room in the house. 9x12 size, worth $12.98..... $10.98
8½x10½ size, worth $11.50..... $9.98
9x9 size, worth $11.50..... $9.98
6x9 size, worth $7.50..... $5.98
4-6x6 size, worth $5.50..... $3.98

Bigelow-Hartford Carpet Sample Mats—Bound and fringed, in all grades, Wilton, Axminster, Saxony and Brussels, sizes from 18-27 inches to 36x72 inches, very rare values; prices ranging... 49c to $3.00 Each

Division 4 EXEMPTION BOARD NOTICES

Division 4 exemption board, with headquarters at the Greenhalge school, has notified the following men to appear at the headquarters at the time specified preparatory to their departure for Ayer.

Sept. 5, 10 a.m.: Edgar E. Rheam, 678 Moody street.
William McPherson, 118 Fulton st.

The following are to appear at 10 o'clock on the morning of Sept. 7:
Leon Seymarsk, 28 Jewell st.
Edward Tibbleau, 601 Merrimac st.
Frank Wysocki, 23 Roy st.

STILL HOPE THAT OLIVER M. CHADWICK IS STILL ALIVE

The hope that Oliver M. Chadwick, the Lowell aviator reported missing several weeks ago, is still alive is being strengthened almost daily and the latest development is the arrival of a telegram from Amos Tuck, a Paris banker, who has interested himself in the recovery of the Lowell boy. The telegram was received last week by Austin K. Chadwick, the aviator's father and reads as follows:

Paris, Aug. 31, 1917.
Austin K. Chadwick, Lowell, Mass.

After sending a medical report, Oliver K. Chadwick, accompanied by two German "Albatross," His aeroplane found later, but not Oliver. Possibly only wounded and prisoner.

TWO SMALL FIRES

An alarm from box 214 at 4:34 o'clock yesterday afternoon was for a fire in Saunders' block at the corner of Gorham and Summer streets. An overheated oil stove was the cause of the fire, but the blaze was extinguished before much damage was done.

At 11:55 o'clock yesterday morning an alarm from box 126 summoned a portion of the department to a slight blaze on the roof of a building in Penwick street. The fire was caused by sparks from a chimney, but it was quickly extinguished.

The automobile started to go down the hill backwards, but the emergency brake was brought into use. Mr. Ilig found it would not hold but the machine had gained such momentum that the brake failed to hold. The driver attempted to steer the machine backwards down the hill but after travelling for a short distance the automobile swerved to the right, struck a wooden fence and going over a low stone wall plunged down a 20-foot embankment and turned upside down. The two men were thrown from the machine and the other occupants were thrown into a stone brook. The crash was loud enough to attract people living in the vicinity and they rushed to the assistance of the people in the machine.

Manager J. E. Dodge of Hood's farm was notified by telephone and a quick trip was made to the scene of the accident.

Mr. Dodge and other farm employees, using the broken fence timber, propped up the machine with planks and iron and Miss Fitzgerald came to the other end of the fence while the other occupants were given assistance. All were bleeding from ugly cuts, but no one was unconscious.

A hurry call was sent to this city for the ambulance and Mr. Fitzgerald, Miss Tully and Mrs. Ilig, who appeared to have suffered the worst injuries were taken to St. John's hospital. Manager Dodge rushed Mrs. Ilig and his daughters to the hospital in his own machine.

William Fitzgerald has been able to leave St. John's hospital and return to his home. When removed to the ambulance to the hospital his injuries which included a bad contusion of the head and traumatic shock were considered serious and he was immediately placed on the dangerous list.

Miss Julia Ilig, daughter, aged two years, lacerations of head.

Miss Christine Tully, 8 Butterfield street, sister-in-law, fractured nose and bad contusion of right eye.

William Fitzgerald, Leominster, guest, bad contusion of head.

Victor Ilig, 85 Billings street, salesman at the Bon Marche Dry Goods Co., was the owner and operator of the machine. Came company with his wife, Mrs. Catherine Ilig, his sister-in-law, Miss Christine Tully, his two daughters, Misses Catherine and Julia Ilig, and guest, William Fitzgerald, who left early in the morning for a trip to Lynn beach. On the return trip they passed through Lawrence and instead of using the Merrimac side of the river to come to Lowell, they chose the Andover side because the road near the armory in Methuen is in poor condition.

Deer Jump hill was reached about three o'clock in the afternoon. The upgrade towards Head farm is very steep and when at a point about 60 feet from the top of the hill Mr. Ilig found it necessary to shift from the gear he was using to negotiate the hill. In doing this his engine became stalled.

The automobile started to go down the hill backwards, but the emergency brake was brought into use. Mr. Ilig found it would not hold but the machine had gained such momentum that the brake failed to hold. The driver attempted to steer the machine backwards down the hill but after travelling for a short distance the automobile swerved to the right, struck a wooden fence and going over a low stone wall plunged down a 20-foot embankment. The two men were thrown from the machine and landed on a large and sharp stone in a small brook, were also given assistance. All were bleeding from ugly cuts, but no one was unconscious.

A hurry call was sent to this city for the ambulance and Mr. Fitzgerald, Miss Tully and Mrs. Ilig, who appeared to have suffered the worst injuries were taken to St. John's hospital. Manager Dodge rushed Mrs. Ilig and his daughters to the hospital in his own machine.

William Fitzgerald has been able to leave St. John's hospital and return to his home. When removed to the ambulance to the hospital his injuries which included a bad contusion of the head and traumatic shock were considered serious and he was immediately placed on the dangerous list.

Miss Catherine Ilig, daughter, aged four years, numerous lacerations of head.

Miss Julia Ilig, daughter, aged two years, lacerations of head.

Miss Christine Tully, 8 Butterfield street, sister-in-law, fractured nose and bad contusion of right eye.

William Fitzgerald, Leominster, guest, bad contusion of head.

Victor Ilig, 85 Billings street, salesman at the Bon Marche Dry Goods Co., was the

MAJ. BUNAU VARILLA SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

PARIS, Sept. 4.—Maj. Philippe Bunau-Varilla was seriously wounded yesterday morning while on duty. Several fragments from a shell struck him in the right leg, which was so injured that amputation was considered necessary. After the amputation, Maj. Bunau-Varilla sent a message to his home asking his relatives not to be anxious concerning him, that he was content to suffer for his country.

Philippe Bunau-Varilla was director-general of the old French Pan-

TRACE DISEASE TO CONSTIPATION

One of the points on which different schools of medicine practically agree is, that about 95% of all human disease is directly traceable to intestinal patency or lack thereof. The eliminative process is an essential factor in digestion and on its proper functioning depends the welfare of the entire system.

Constipation is a condition that should never be neglected. As soon as the bowel's evidence the slightest disposition to slow up, a mild laxative should be taken. The combination of simple laxative herbs will prove most useful. Dr. H. C. Syrup, Peppermint and Gold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended as a corrective, acting gently, in an easy, natural way, without griping or other pain or discomfort. A trial bottle of this will find family use can easily be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 458 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

After the filing of a bankruptcy

PLAN TO STIMULATE MILITARY MUSIC

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—In order to stimulate military music a standard song book to be used in all branches of the service will be issued Oct. 1st, it was announced today by the executives committee for the supervision of music in the army and navy. The new book will contain songs suitable for singing in camp and at the front and will fit into the pockets in a khaki blouse. It is planned in all of the larger training camps to have mass singing conducted under the instruction of leaders of recognized ability. Original songs are to be encouraged and there will be blank space in the song books for new airs produced during the war.

W. H. A. BACON CO. FILES SCHEDULE SHOWING LIABILITIES OF $712,198

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—The W. & A. Bacon Co., department store owners whose business was recently placed in the hands of a receiver on petition of creditors in bankruptcy proceedings, today filed a schedule showing liabilities of $712,198. The amount of assets, the firm reported, has not been ascertained. With the schedule the company submitted an offer to settle with creditors on a basis of 33 1/3 cents on the dollar.

After the filing of a bankruptcy

B. F. Keith's Theatre

The Amusement Centre of Lowell

Vaudeville Today, Mat. 2 P. M., Eve. 7.30

EARLE CAVANAUGH

In "MR. INQUISITIVE"

With RUTH TOMPKINS

A Movie Musical Comedy With Music and Femininity

Joseph Bennett and Edward Richards

In the Dramatic Sensation

"DARK CLOUDS"

Brown and Denny in "Back Again"

Joseph E. Bernard presents "Who Is She"

KULLEROV BROS. LEONARDI

EXCLUSIVE SHOWING IN LOWELL

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

In the Comedy Photoplay, "IN AGAIN, OUT AGAIN"

SEATS NOW ON SALE FOR ONE WEEK IN ADVANCE

SPECIAL NOTICE TO PUBLIC—On account of the increased length of our entertainment, Matineses will start at 2 p. m., and Evening at 7.30 sharp, until further notice.

OWL THEATRE

SHOWING ONLY THE BEST

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

VALESKA SURATT

The Screen's Best Gowned Star, in the WILLIAM FOX Photoplay

"THE SIREN"

In which Cherry Millard enters the opium den, and there she found the man whose life she ruined. If you want to know what happened see this gripping play.

PEARL WHITE

In the Second Episode of

"The Fatal Ring"

The Most Baffling Serial Ever Written

START IT TOMORROW

TONIGHT ONLY—GAIL KANE in "THE UPPER CRUST"

OTHER PLAYS

Merrimack Square Theatre

TODAY AND WEDNESDAY

BILLIE BURKE In "The Mysterious Miss Terry"

An intense mystery with three young men in love with an heiress, but only one wins out.

ALEXANDRA CARLISLE in "TIDES OF FATE"

A Fast Moving, Thrilling Romance.

PICTOGRAPHS—COMEDY—OTHERS

THE JAMES CO.

Merrimack Street, Corners of Palmer

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

We Will Place On Sale 25 Dozen

Girls' New Fall Dresses For School Wear

Samples from four leading New York makers of High Grade Girls' Dresses. Materials in fine Ginghams, Poplins, Chambrays and Repp Cloths. Newest high waisted effects. Also 2-piece Middy Dresses in the assortment. All sizes 4 to 14 years.

VALUES 98c AND $1.25. JUST FOR THIS SALE... 69c

WRIGLEY'S

S. O. S.
Send Over Some
WRIGLEY'S

Keep your soldier or sailor boy supplied. Give him the lasting refreshment, the protection against thirst, the help to appetite and digestion afforded by Wrigley's.

It's an outstanding feature of the war—"All the British Army is chewing it."

AFTER EVERY MEAL

The Flavor Lasts

THE MORRIS PLAN

SENDING THE CHILDREN TO SCHOOL

This is the time of the year when expenses are heavy in families where there are children.

Getting children ready for school—and having to buy shoes, and new suits, and hats and caps—costs money. If you need money for this, or any other useful and legitimate purpose, The Morris Plan will help you. We make loans on fair terms on the basis of character and earning power. You will need two friends to sign your note with you. We do not lend money on pawns or chattels.

Loans are made for one year, at six per cent with a charge of $1.00 for every $50.00 borrowed. And there is a convenient method for repayment, which makes it easy for you to meet your loan at the end of a year.

Call or write for booklet "How to Borrow Money on Your Character".

The Lowell Morris Plan Co.
18 SHATTUCK ST.

THE FIRST COST OF Adamite Plastic Roofing

IS THE ONLY COST As the surface will never require painting or patching. ADAMITE is a combination of elements that are impervious to the action of climate, rain, snow, wind, fire, rust and decay. An ADAMITE roof presents a uniform, unbroken surface free from dips, seams and joints, and no maintenance, fitting or estimating is necessary to lay an Adamite Covering. Anyone can successfully apply it with a plasterer's trowel. One pound will cover an area of about 4 square feet, spread in a layer 1/8 inch thick. We give it a ten year guarantee bond.

Bills, at 9c lb.; 250 lbs. at 1c lb.; 100 lbs. 1c lb.; 50 lbs. at 1c lb.; less than 50 lbs. 1c lb. the pound.

Free City Motor Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
63 MARKET STREET

TIMELY DISCOVERY BY MR. GANLEY SAVES LIVES OF THREE CHILDREN

The timely discovery by John J. Ganley of a gas leak in the house at 75 Boynton street, which is next to his own home, probably saved the lives of three children of John F. Carney Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Carney went out during the evening and left in the house their three children, a girl aged ten years, a boy aged three and a baby. During the absence of the parents, a gas burner developed a leak and the employees were losing their wages, especially in view of the fact that any wage increases that may be hereafter granted would undoubtedly be made retroactive.

"It seems unfortunate that the railroad is without the services of a large number of its employees and that the employees are losing their wages, especially in view of the fact that any wage increases that may be hereafter granted would undoubtedly be made retroactive."

All Trains Running

BOSTON, Sept. 4—Officials of the Boston & Maine railroad said today that the strike of repair shop and roundhouse workers had not yet resulted in any interference with train schedules. They added that engineers and firemen are making minor repairs on locomotives at the end of their runs.

The general committee of the strikers held a meeting today to act on the question of accepting an arbitration proposition suggested by Charles G. Wood of the state board of conciliation and arbitration. James H. Hustis, temporary receiver of the railroad, yesterday informed the railroad war board at Washington of the situation and asked that they call it to the attention of Secretary of Labor Wilson.

LOCAL BRANCH OF RED CROSS SOCIETY OPENS NEW WORK-ROOM

The new workroom of the local branch of the Red Cross society opened this morning in the Bigelow-Hartford plant in Market street. There were a number of visitors today and all were more than delighted with the ample and airy quarters.

A delicious combination of ginger and aromatics for the relief of cramps, pains, colds, chills, weakness, nervousness and insomnia. Look for the Owl Trade Mark on the wrapper, lest you get a cheap, worthless仿制品. Forty-five years the standard of purity, strength and aromatic cool by all druggists and grocers.

IT'S YOURS—USE "Digestonite," Nature's restorative and safe shortcut to quick relief from stomach ill: Heartburn, Dizziness, Acid Mouth, Lost Appetite, Sickness, etc.

Known, trusted and tried by thousands.

Want a new stomach?

IT'S YOURS—USE "Digestonite," The Key to Relief!

Suffered for six or seven months from stomach trouble, was dizzy, nervous, lost weight, etc. I lost about six pounds. A friend recommended Digestonite to me and I took feel like a new woman. I sleep well and my nerves are completely under control.

—NINERTA ALLEN.

86 Spring St., Waterbury, Conn.

Your fault if you suffer longer—Digestonite

JUST SWALLOW IT every day. For price, ask

FRED HOWARD

197 Central Street, Lowell, Mass.

(50)

Have Your Going Away Trunks and Bags Repaired
Also Buy Your New Luggage at

DEVINE'S

156 Merrimack St. Tel. 2160

OPERAS HOUSE

The Theatre of Big Things

"SHIRLEY KAYE"

Hulbert Footner's Smooth Comedy Drama Success as It Is Being Presented by

THE EMERSON PLAYERS

KENDAL WESTON
Under the Personal Direction of

A Finished Production—Artistic Stage Settings—Full Cast—The Play in Which Elsie Ferguson Scored Her Biggest Triumph

PRICES—Night 50c, 30c, 20c and 10c; Matines 30, 20c and 10c. Order Your Tickets Now. Telephone 261.

Subscription List Open. Curtain 2.15 and 8.15.

COTE'S AUTO LIVERY and TAXI SERVICE

GARAGE 39 MIDDLE STREET. Seven Passenger Cars. Will Go Anywhere.

TEL. 1829-W

ROTH WINS 10 MILE RACE AT LEXINGTON

PITTS SO. ENDS DEFEAT C.M.A.C.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 4.—Fred Faller of Reedsdale, starting from scratch in yesterday's 10-mile run under the direction of the Catholic club of Lexington, finished second in a field of 16 runners, being but a minute and five seconds behind the first man, Arthur V. Roth. Roth had three minutes and 20 seconds handicap. He won first prize for the race, but the time prize went to Faller, whose time was 1 hour 16 minutes 41 seconds. The start was made from in front of the state house, and the course led out Beacon street to Massachusetts ave. and straight out through Cambridge and Arlington to Lexington Center in Waltham street, finishing at the clubhouse of the Catholic club.

From Arlington Center to Lexington a stiff grade was encountered, and all the way the roadway was of tarvia, making the going hard. Of the 16 starters 10 finished.

All the runners who finished came into the finish strong, and all were in excellent shape, physically after the grind.

The order in which the runners finished was as follows:

Name and club	H'cap time
A. V. Roth, St. Alphonsus	1:15:38
Fred Faller, Reedsdale	1:15:41
Carl Lind, Finnish A.A.	1:18:37
Geo. Costarakis, Boston	1:19:02
J. J. Madden, St. Al.
phonous A.A.	1:20:40
A. G. Horn, Maplewood	1:23:50
H. Kalua, Laneyville	1:24:36
W. Wilcox, Quincy	1:25:06
M. Silver, St. Charles AA
Waltham	1:34:03
W. Mahoney, Dorchester	1:29:16

VESPER COUNTRY GOLF

Walter Clarkson carried off first honors at the Vesper-Country cup play yesterday with a net of 73. The cards turned in were as follows:

Gross Hand'P Net

W. Clarkson	75	73
H. S. Smith	102	96
F. L. Allen	87	78
C. H. Tucker	100	88
E. C. Crompton	40	32
W. C. Crompton	34	1
J. E. Hyatt	34	1
Thornton Lyford	43	8
H. S. Mith	44	6
C. H. Tucker	44	5
Chester Drury	35	3
C. F. Copp	35	2
D. F. Woodward	47	7
E. K. Arnold	46	4
H. S. Drury	36	2
H. N. Morton	38	3

In the unlimited play for the best selected nine holes, the scores were as follows:

E. C. Crompton	40	8	22
W. C. Crompton	34	1	23
J. E. Hyatt	34	1	23
Thornton Lyford	43	8	25
H. S. Mith	44	6	26
C. H. Tucker	44	5	29
Chester Drury	35	3	22
C. F. Copp	35	2	22
D. F. Woodward	47	7	40
E. K. Arnold	46	4	43
H. S. Drury	36	2	34
H. N. Morton	38	3	35

CONSTANTINEAU SOME "TEAM"

Constantineau, with the exception of one inning, pitched a magnificent ball game, giving an exhibition that with any kind of descent support would have brought victory to his side. He had great control, and while he is a good "ball team," it was a physical impossibility for him to play nine positions and build a team like the South Ends, without help. The grand was still in its infancy when "Connie" realized that it was up to him to stave off defeat, and he literally worked his head off to do so, and after apparently succeeding twice, his teammates spilled the beans, by having the ball around like a bunch of maiden ladies trying to hit an African dodger. The balls went every place, but where they should go, ten errors on the part of the team will testify. "Connie" struck out ten.

DETIN SENT TO SHOWERS

Devlin, the usual steady twirler of the South Ends, was not up to the standard, and after allowing nine hits, in five and a third inning, was sent to the showers, and "Big Feller" Smith called in. Smith went in "cold," and after walking two, forcing in one run, got properly warmed up, and pitched a great game. He did not allow a hit during his stay on the mound, and in the seventh and eighth retired the side in order.

The greatest work spots on the South Ends were second base, first base, short stop and catch, and these men were called upon to do or undo practically all the plays. Only one fly was knocked to the C.M.A.C. outfit, this to Marcotte, and he did the right thing, so in panning the team the outfit should escape, for the other two men didn't have a chance.

PELE HARTLEY WAS FINALLY DECIDED UPON AS AN OPPONENT FOR CALLAHAN

After Jimmy Johnson sent in Pele Hartley to callahan, Jimmy got peevish because Mike O'Dowd got the award over Ted Kid Lewis at the arena last Tuesday. Johnson was the only one in the arena who thought the two ends should have won. Pele Yelle was matched but it was discovered that he had an injured hand.

Hartley is a rugged, hard hitting boy, and will be a dangerous find to his right punch and is a dangerous scrapper for any aspirant to the lightweight throne to tackle.

LEAGUE STANDING

American Won Lost P.C.

Chicago 58 42 .503

Boston 58 46 .505

Glenview 52 32 .500

Detroit 67 64 .511

New York 58 55 .472

Washington 67 66 .463

Philadelphia 50 82 .376

National Won Lost P.C.

New York 78 43 .545

Philadelphia 65 51 .550

Boston 61 51 .551

Chicago 66 55 .511

Brooklyn 64 66 .432

Boston 59 63 .434

Pittsburgh 51 67 .433

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

American League

(First), New York 1, Boston 0; (second), New York 4, Boston 1.

(First), Cleveland 3, St. Louis 3; (second), Cleveland 7, St. Louis 6; (12 innings)

(First), Philadelphia 7, Washington 4; (second), Philadelphia 3, Washington 4.

(First), Detroit 9, Chicago 8; (second), Chicago 14, Detroit 8.

National League

(First), New York 7, Boston 0; (second), Boston 6, New York 2.

(First), Philadelphia 5; Brooklyn 6; (second), Philadelphia 9, Brooklyn 3.

(First), Chicago 6, St. Louis 6; (second), St. Louis 2, Chicago 0.

(First), Pittsburgh 8, Cincinnati 0; (second), Pittsburgh 5, Cincinnati 3.

GAMES TOMORROW

American League

New York at Boston.

Chicago at St. Louis.

Washington at Philadelphia.

National League

Boston at New York.

Pittsburgh at Brooklyn.

Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

St. Louis at Chicago.

GIBBONS' SHADES DILLON

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 4.—Mike Gibbons of Indianapolis in every round of his 10-mile no decision fight according to sport writers who saw the contest here last night. Gibbons took the offensive in the first round and kept it, with the exception of the third round when Dillon rallied and won an even break. In the fifth round Gibbons rocked Dillon, held him left to the jaw and drawing blood and inflicting punishment to the eyes. In the following rounds Dillon showed signs of distress but displayed remarkable grit which kept him on his feet under staggering blows. Gibbons grew cautious in the ninth and 10th rounds but finished with rain of rights and lefts that sent Dillon staggering to his corner.

SOUTH ENDS GET FIVE IN FIFTH

In the fifth "Connie" experienced his one bad inning and the South Ends took the lead by piling up five runs.

Dillon walked, Duffy doubled to left.

Liston did the same and Gallagher, who went in to run for Dillon, who injured his ankle in sliding into third and kept it, with rain of rights and lefts that sent Dillon staggering to his corner.

Mt. PLEASANT GOLF CLUB

In the best selected nine-hole contest at the Mt. Pleasant golf course Saturday and yesterday, A. H. Manday won first, Boston Mills and F. L. Knapp were tied for second place. The driving contest Thomas Southam won with a drive of 225 yards.

CONNIE" GETS JUMP BY WINNING FIRST OF SERIES 9 TO 7—RECORD CROWD AT GAME

C. M. A. C. HAD GAME CINCINNATI BUT THREW IT AWAY—COMEDY OF ERRORS

PITTS SOUTH ENDS

DEFEAT C.M.A.C.

Three for C.M.A.C. in Sixth

The C.M.A.C. came back strong in the sixth, and succeeded in scoring three runs, and driving Devlin to the showers. Schonborn singled. Marcotte led off to Devlin. Mauchan singled to left and Le Bourdais slammed one to center sending Schonborn home. Exit Mr. Devlin; enter Smith. The latter did not have a chance to warm up, and he was as wild as a hawk. He passed "Connie" and also issued a free ticket to Chouinard, who replaced him. Falls hit to Duffy, who threw to Gallagher getting Chouinard out. Duffy fanned. Falls fanned. Pare made a great attempt to plant the ball over the fence and gave Lyons a chance to make a fine put out, with his back against the wall.

South Ends Out in Front to Stay

In the latter half of the sixth the South Ends again took the lead, and they held it for the remainder of the game. Smith got life for McVeigh's bad peg, going to second before the ball was passed to the diamond. He took third on Duffy's hit. White fanned. White dropped a beautiful single in center field, and Smith counted. White stole second. Jenkins fanned to Schonborn. Clark hit to McVeigh, who made a fine stop and threw to first. But Le Bourdais was off the bag, and the runner was safe with White scoring. In the ninth, the South Ends took the lead, 9 to 7.

After witnessing the recent thrilling games between the Broadways and the South Ends, which were replete with spectacular plays, alight pitching, and other big league features, yesterday's exhibition was big disappointment. In the recent series, the two teams were forced to the limit to come out on top. Those games were the kind you read about, and for that reason, unless the C.M.A.C. team improves the present series will be a big disappointment to the spectators' viewpoint.

LARGEST CROWD OF SEASON

The fact that the attendance was the largest of the season, and that it was the first "Money Game" that the C.M.A.C. has participated in this season, may have been responsible for their inferior playing, for outside of Constantineau, the team "blew up" and after having the game practically twice, tossed it away, and forced the South Ends to take the lead.

The C.M.A.C. failed to score in the remaining three innings, while the South Ends made it nine in their half of the eighth. Smith fanned. Duffy hit out on the poor peg. He tried to steal third, but was caught. Listen also got a life on another bum peg by Schonborn, holding up at second. White then hit a low roller to Chouinard, which the latter waited for, and the result that White reached first and Listen counted. Only three men faced Listen in the ninth, and the game was over. The score:

SOUTH ENDS ab r bh po e

Duffy, 2b 5 2 4 5 4

Listen, o 5 2 3 6 2

White, c 5 1 0 1 0

Jenkins, if 3 1 0 1 0

Clark, 1b 3 1 0 2 1

Duffy, 3b 4 0 0 2 1

Lyons, rf 4 0 0 1 0

Gallagher, ss 4 0 0 4 0

Devlin, p 0 2 0 0 0

Smith, p 2 0 0 0 0

Totals 37 9 10 27 9 3

C.M.A.C. ab r bh po a

Le Bourdais, 1b 4 1 1 6 2

Constantineau, D 0 0 0 0 0

Chouinard, 2b 1 0 0 0 0

Falls, if 3 1 0 1 3

McVeigh, 3b 4 0 1 0 0

White, ss 5 2 2 5 1

Marquette, cf 4 1 2 1 0

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

SUPPRESSING A NEWSPAPER

There are many ways of putting down disloyalty. One of the most effective and admirable methods is shown in the suppression of a semi-weekly German newspaper published in Cedar Springs, Iowa.

The paper in question was so violently pro-German in its utterances that it aroused the indignation of loyal citizens. The editor was warned several times by the United States marshal to stop his "quasi-reasonable" utterances, but he went right ahead with his condemnation of American policies and his enthusiastic support of the German government.

Then his own readers took the matter in hand. They didn't make any fuss about it. They didn't bluster or threaten. They simply stopped reading the paper.

That was enough. A brief dispatch from Cedar Springs the other day told the whole story: "Loyal German-Americans in the state have withdrawn their support, forcing the paper to suspend publication."

These German-American readers have earned the gratitude of their community and of the entire country. They have set an example that might be followed profitably in a number of other American communities—and will be followed, we suspect, if the editors who are still doing the Kaiser's work don't change their tone. There are two such papers issued from New York but they do not bear German names.

That Iowa paper has been "suppressed by the censor"—the only censor who really counts—the honest reader.

PEACE TALK CAMOUFLAGE

The belligerent armies on the battle-fields of Europe are not the only experts in the use of camouflage. German propagandists in this country are using similar methods to promote their own underhanded work. They do not make military roads look like grassy meadows or conceal railroad lines beneath sage underbrush. Instead, they organize peace societies and councils that advocate democracy and oppose war measures in the same program. They hide pernicious pro-German propaganda behind false advocacy of democratic principles.

Labor standards must be upheld and steadily raised. Every intelligent citizen believes that and is willing to work for it just as he looks toward permanent peace and human freedom. But the German propagandist, who cares little about such democracy, uses it beautifully in his plead for peace. And many a gullible soul who hasn't the knack of thinking for himself or searching to the bottom of things, is taken in and begins to shout for peace, against war; to doubt the causes of America's entry into the struggle and to oppose measures for effectively carrying the fight to a definite and safe conclusion.

We're fighting this war for democracy. We're fighting it for peace. Don't let the camouflage of premature peace talk deceive you into wavering in your faith in our ideals and purposes or swinging your allegiance to an artfully disguised autocracy.

ICE

Wonders will never cease. Here is a representative of the country's ice manufacturers saying, in a Chicago conference:

"We must endeavor to sell ice to the people at a price that will make it a real economy. In other words, the cost of a sufficient supply of ice to the average housewife must be less than the value of the food that she would waste without ice."

Of course, considering the present value of that food, it may not mean much of a concession. And there's nothing said about saving the housewife enough to pay for interest and depreciation on her iceman investment, and compensate for having her floor tracked up by the iceman every morning. Still, it's something to know that the ice may actually cost less than the perishable food it saves from spoiling.

On second thought, however, a housewife isn't likely to be quite so enthusiastic about it. This liberal announcement happens to be made just at the turn of the season, with winter coming on. Will the promise last over till next summer?

CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION

President Wilson favors a campaign of education on the war by the patriotic representatives and senators of congress after adjournment. He feels that they can do much to enlighten the people on the measures adopted by congress and to counteract the effect of the sedition sown broadcast by La Follette, Stone, Grinnan, Vardaman and others. Senator Parnell of Maine started the speech-making on the war and the president on learning what the senator was doing expressed his approval of it and said he hoped congress would soon adjourn so that the other members might address their constituents in a similar way. He also expressed the hope that he himself would have an opportunity to say something to the people. He undoubtedly will. This is a case in which the president will doubtless welcome the aid of Col. Roosevelt who is doing good work in this line.

to Europe should be scrutinized so that none of this important material for the manufacture of explosives, can reach the enemy.

THE KITTREDGE ROBBERY

It is gratifying that the self-confessed robbers of Mr. Kittredge have been so promptly apprehended. In this case the police did a commendable job. The automobile that has so often foiled police departments in the capture of robbers, in this particular case threw the fugitives into the hands of the police by getting stalled on the road. The fact that after the robbery or when the police were setting out to search for the robbers, the automobile shot through the streets at high speed without headlights, gave the clue as to the direction the robbers had taken in leaving the city. The rest was easy. The breakdown of the auto capped the climax and left the marauders at bay. If these men prove to be the real perpetrators of the crime they should be punished to the extreme extent of the law. Society must be rid of such characters.

SEND THEM TO SCHOOL

Commissioner Claxton of the United States bureau of education is conducting a campaign to prevent the employment of children at home when they should be at school. In other words his aim is to keep the children at school as usual despite any increased necessity due to the war.

The work of some colleges has been largely upset as a result of the draft and conscriptions. The attendance during the coming winter will be very much less than normal as a result of the war. Many young college men have enlisted, many others have been drafted, while a considerable number have been called to do special work at home.

ENFORCE THE EMBARGO

It is a fact already apparent that the strict enforcement of the embargo on exports will hasten the end of the war as much as anything else can and perhaps even more. The main volume of exports of food and other supplies to Denmark and the Netherlands finally reaches Germany. This should be stopped as it is only helping to prolong the struggle in which our soldiers will have to meet the dangers of war. It is particularly important also that the big shipments of cotton

A GERMAN UNDERTAKING
The German agents at work in this country are planning a convention under the title of the People's Council of America for Peace and Democracy. Such a convention, no matter how unrepresentative it might be, would be heralded abroad, particularly in Russia and Germany, as an uprising of the American people against the war. This is but another scheme by German plotters to keep up the semblance of dissatisfaction or opposition to the war. The news is needed to bluff the war weary people of Germany and Austria.

THE PICKETS CONDEMNED

The woman suffragists of New York at their recent convention passed a resolution condemning the picketing foolishness at Washington. It is high time the suffragists of every state should proclaim all sympathy much less support of that piece of silliness. The longer a general repudiation is delayed the worse will it be for the suffrage cause.

The community dance on the South common proved a talking feature once the people got over their hesitation to get out upon the green. Something of the kind might be provided for as a substitute for the stereotyped band concert at which a few thousand people make a record attendance. The community dance attracted 10,000.

There should be no delay in opening the new Pawtucketville bridge if it is completed according to specifications. If there be any defects, the experts on both sides should reach an understanding in regard to them so that there may be no delay in opening the bridge to public travel.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

The United States civil service commission announced competitive examinations to be held as follows:

Land classifier, (male), salary $1800 to $2100 per annum; cook, Indian service, salary, $500 per annum; trained nurse, (female), Indian service, salary, $720 per annum; physician, Indian and Panama canal service, salary, $1000 to $1800 per annum and an allowance for subsistence; inspectors of ordnance equipment, (male), salary, grade 1, $2000 to $2400 per annum; grade 2, $1800 to $1800 per annum.

Sept. 11—Designing engineer, armor plant and steel mill, salary, $10 to $10 per diem; designing engineer, heavy steel mill construction, salary, $10 to $16 per diem; designing and constructing engineer, open-hearth furnace plant, salary $10 to $16 per diem; hydraulic and sanitary engineer, salary, $10 to $16 per diem.

Sept. 18—Investigator in accounting and office management, (male), salary, $2000 to $3000 per annum; sonior expert electrical and mechanical aid, (male), salary, $12 per diem.

Sept. 19—Assistant in marketing live stock and meats, grade 2, (male), salary, $1200 to $1800 per annum; field assistant in forest pathology, (male), salary, $1200 to $1630 per annum; dynamo tender, (male), salary, $3.68 per diem.

Sept. 25—Assistant in marketing live stock and meats, grade 1, (male), salary, $1800 to $2400 per annum.

Oct. 2—Elevator conductor, (male), salary, $540 to $720 per annum; clerk qualified as typewriter repairman, (male), salary, $1200 per annum; copyist draftsman, salary, $2 to $3.44 per diem; trained nurse, Panama canal service, (male and female), salary, $55 to $125 a month; assistant geologist, ground water work, (male), salary, $1200 per annum.

Oct. 3-4—Forrest assistant, (male), salary, $1600 per annum.

WESTFORD'S TAX RATE

The board of assessors for the town of Westford have announced the town's tax rate for the year 1917, which is $16.40 per thousand, or an increase of 100 cents over the 1916 rate.

REPORT OF DEATHS

FOR THE WEEK ENDING SEPT. 1, 1917.

Aug.—Patrick Devine, 49, automobile accident.

24 Eric Collins, 68, diabetes mellitus.

Clara Methot, 55, angina pectoris.

Maria Ferreria, 5 m., influenza.

Mary Evelyn Smith, 2, gastroenteritis.

Catherine McGann, 61, gastric carcinoma.

24 Patrick McCarthy, 6 m., chol. infantum.

Katherine M. Gooch, 46, endocarditis.

Thomas McDonagh, 64, arterio sclerosis.

Margaret T. McGrath, 2, neo-cystitis.

Raymond Moreau, 6 m., chol. infantum.

Katie Murkland, 62, arterio sclerosis.

25 Augustine M. Morton, 80, fracture of femur.

Victor Sadowski, 7 d., enteritis.

Jacob Quirbach, 73, arterio sclerosis.

Raymond E. Lepine, 1 d., patent foramen ovale.

Blanche Caron, 7, struck by motorcycle.

Patrick J. Barrett, 50, carcinoma of rectum.

Edwin French, 81, cardiorenal disease.

Mary Isabel Pollard, 8, appendicitis.

27 Benjamin Horsfall, 64, diabetes mellitus.

Ruth M. Wilson, 38, carcinoma.

28 Theodore Lozowetz, 1 m., gastritis.

John Figueira, 8 m., gastroenteritis.

Augustine Fratus, 4 h., congenital debility.

27 Joseph Proulx, 46, cardiolorenal disease.

Michael Griffin, 1, interstitial colitis.

Frank Sousa, 16 hrs., prem. birth.

Sophie Marotte, 73, cancer.

Annie McNamee, 63, paralysis.

Anna M. Andrews, 73, toxemia.

John McComb, 62, broncho pneumonia.

30 Leo St. Onge, 2 m., gastritis.

Domenitido Bissonsuite, 60, nephritis.

Arthur Grimard, 32, tuberculosis.

Stephen Flynn, City Clerk.

FLAG RAISING AT THE BUNTING CRICKET CLUB IN SOUTH LOWELL

A well attended and enthusiastic flag raising was held by the Bunting Cricket club at its grounds in South Lowell Saturday afternoon. Frederick G. Humphries, president of the club, delivered an address on "The Flag and What it Stands For" after which he recited "Your Flag and My Flag," and also read a poem by Mrs. Rose C. Denning of Palestine, Texas.

After the address the Bunting club orchestra played "To the Colors" and Joseph Senn, the only life-long member had the honor of raising a new flag purchased for the occasion.

The exercises closed with the "Star Spangled Banner," sung by the members and their friends. Several patriotic instrumental and vocal selections were given on the platform of the club house during the evening.

On Labor day, the attraction at Bunting park was the bowling on the green tournament, which is one of the annual events of the club.

An ambulance was summoned and the injured man was hurried to the Lowell Corporation hospital.

Clearance Sale

75 Boys' Wash Suits

Norfolks, Middies and all the new style ideas for boys. Sold for $1 and $1.50. Now

89c

50 Boys' Finest Wash Suits

Galateas, Linens, Ducks and Repp, all fresh, crisp styles. Sold for $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. All now $1.69.

Putnam & Son Co.

166 Central Street.

won by F. Conniff; second, J. Donnelly; third, A. Rigg.

Shoe race for boys, won by Thomas Conniff; William Riley; second, third, Arthur Riley.

Throwing baseball, won by Rigg; second, Riley; third, Tighe.

Fat men's race, won by Frank Dodge.

Needle and thread contest: Crowley and Prescott, first; McBride and McBride, second; Boyle and Howard, third.

Race for tall and nobby ladies: Won by McBride; second, Howard; third, Keefe.

Base running race: Won by Leary, 1st; second, A. Rigg, 2d; Doigian, 3d.

LOST RIGHT LEG WHEN HE JUMPED FROM ELECTRIC CAR

John Koumandotes, residing at 14 Cumminskey's alley, was run over by an electric car in Merrimack street, near the corner of Tilden, last night, his right leg being cut off above the knee. He was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital where the leg was amputated about one-third way up.

Koumandotes boarded the car at the Pawtucket bridge and when near the corner of Merrimack and Tilden streets signalled the car to stop, but before it came to a standstill he jumped from the car. Owing to the momentum of the car when the man landed on the ground he fell and rolled partly under the running board so that his right leg was cut off by the wheels. The ambulance was summoned and the injured man was hurried to the Lowell Corporation hospital.

After the address the Bunting club orchestra played "To the Colors" and Joseph Senn, the only life-long member had the honor of raising a new flag purchased for the occasion.

The exercises closed with the "Star Spangled Banner," sung by the members and their friends. Several patriotic instrumental and vocal selections were given on the platform of the club house during the evening.

On Labor day, the attraction at Bunting park was the bowling on the green tournament, which is one of the annual events of the club.

An ambulance was summoned and the injured man was hurried to the Lowell Corporation hospital.

Fat women's race, won by McBride; second, Howard; third, Keefe.

Single women's race, won by Madeline Lukar; second, Margaret McGuire; third, Margaret McShane.

Fifty-yard dash for married women, won by Mrs. Prescott; Mrs. Marno, second; Mrs. Donley, third.

Hundred yard dash for men, won by Crowley; second, McSorley; third, Jeves.

Race for girls 16 years of age and under, won by Miss E. Glancy; second, Lillian Coniff; third, Ethel Howard.

Race for girls nine years of age and under, won by Miriel Driscoll; second, Gertrude Glancy; third, Ethel Coniff.

Race for girls

PROTEST PRES. WILSON'S REPLY TO POPE

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 4.—According to advices received here from Brunen, President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals was the occasion of a demonstration on the bourse there yesterday. After a speech by Herr Fabrius, president of the chamber of commerce it was resolved to send the following to the emperor.

"Bremen merchants raise an indignation protest against President Wilson's hypocritical reply to the pope, in which he professes to combat the German government in order to drive the American people, with whom Germany never had quarrelled into a war which they reject. It is an impudent and brazen attempt to sow dissension between the government and the people in the German nation, while by British arbitrariness our non-combatants, children and women are cut off from all outside supplies in order to exhaust the nation's hunger."

"This attempt can only fill with indignation and contempt German merchants who have had the opportunity in foreign lands to compare German with foreign conditions. In this hour Bremen merchants pledge themselves to unshakable allegiance to your majesty, bearer as the empire's guardian of the imperial crown re-won after centuries of long struggles by the united German people in 1871. They again declare their unalterable confidence and belief in a victorious outcome of this righteous war of defense."

In the course of his speech President Fabrius said no other enemy utterance had evoked such wrath in every German heart as President Wilson's note in which the most sacred rights of the German nation were assailed.

A demonstration also was held on the Hamburg bourse, where resolutions similar to those adopted in Bremen were passed.

CLOSING OF Y.W.C.A. CAMP SHOWS SPLENDID RESULTS OF SUMMER WORK

The closing of the summer season at Camp Euka conducted by the Y.W.C.A. on the banks of the Merrimack River at Tyngsboro took place yesterday and the event proved very enjoyable. There were about 50 young women who participated in the exercises and all were unanimous in saying the affair was the best ever.

In the afternoon sporting events of all kinds were conducted and a feature of the program was a swimming exhibition which showed the remarkable results of the summer's work. Boat racing and tennis were also in order and all the events proved very enjoyable. The most spectacular event of the afternoon was the demonstration of life saving under the direction of Miss Mildred Cunningham, physical director at the camp. Standing in the boat in mid-river two girls showed the various movements necessary to be used in different kinds of emergencies. The two girls, Miss Dorothy Flemings and Miss Mildred Cunningham, then jumped overboard in the act of saving a drowning boy, swimming being available underneath the boat.

The day's program closed with a camp-fire supper and the singing of the "Euka" songs. The summer camp has been under the direction of Mrs. A. S. Ferguson, camp director, and Miss Alice Eva Powers Washburn, camp leader and Miss Gladys Pendexter. Yesterday it was announced that Miss Washburn will soon leave Lowell to assume the duties of physical director at the Cambridge Y.W.C.A.

MORTALITY OF LOWELL

For the week ending, Sept. 1: Population, 107,075; total deaths, 37; deaths under five, 13; infectious diseases, 1; acute lung disease, 1; tuberculosis, 1.

Deaths rate, 1.1 per 1,000 population, two weeks' defective disease reported. Diphtheria, 1; typhoid fever, 2; cerebro spinal meningitis, 1; tuberculosis, 4.

Board of Health.

MATRIMONIAL

Curtis V. Ordway of Cambridge and Miss Jessie Althen Fowler of North Billerica were married yesterday at the parsonage of the Gorham Street P. M. church by Rev. N. W. Matthews. The couple were attended by George F. Byron and Miss Cora S. Maxwell of Billerica. After Oct. 1 the couple will make their home in Cambridge.

Crocker-Carlin
James H. Crocker and Miss Mildred E. Carlin, both of Tyngsboro, were married Sunday afternoon at the parsonage of the Highland M. E. church by Rev. H. L. Bailey. The couple were attended by Rev. H. L. Bailey.

Moore-Messer

Herbert C. Moore and Miss Mary M. Messer were married yesterday noon at the First Baptist church parsonage by the pastor, Rev. A. G. Archibald. The bride wore a white crepe gown of gold and silver roses. She was attended by Miss Annie Moore of New York, who was attired in blue satin and carried roses and sweet peas. The best man was Harry Ryan of New York. After a tour of the White mountains the couple will return to the home of the bride, 72 Grant street, when on Sept. 8 a reception will be tendered them.

Gallagher-Gale

A pretty wedding took place Sunday evening at St. William's church, Dorchester, when Sergt. Maurice F. Gallagher of the 5th U. S. Field artillery stationed at Sparta, Wis., and Miss Ora Cole of 36 Main street, this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. J. Mahoney. The bride wore silk insets with picture hat to match, while the groom was attired in his military uniform. At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the brother of the groom, Mr. William J. Gale, 102 Boston street, Dorchester. After a brief honeymoon trip the groom will return to his military duties while the bride will make her home at 293 Dorchester avenue, Dorchester.

Protestant

WHEN YOU bathe the baby, sprinkle a little 20 Mule Team Borax in the warm water. It will soothe the tender skin, cleanse the pores and remove odors. The baby's dyed should also be washed with 20 Mule Team Borax to make them antiseptic, soft and sweet smelling. Wherever you use soap on baby, use Borax.

DEATHS

HOLTON—George F. Bolton, aged 6 months and 15 days, died Sunday afternoon at the Lowell General hospital. He leaves his parents, Frank and Clara Bolton, at 28 Bye street.

PICARD—Bazil Picard, aged 74 years, died Sunday at his home, 74 Fisher street. He leaves four daughters, Loretta, Lorraine, Loretta Picard and Mrs. Arthur Dupuis.

HOLTON—Miss Jennie Bolton, an old resident of this city, died Monday at the Chelmsford street hospital. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FARMER—Miss Rose Farmer, aged 46 years, former resident of this city, died yesterday at the Worcester State hospital. The body was brought to the rooms of Undertakers Amedee Archambault & Sons, this city.

BUCKLEY—George Buckley died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louise Boyle, 9 Fay street. He was aged 70 years, 11 months and 10 days. Besides Mrs. Boyle, he is survived by another daughter, Miss Anne Buckley and by two grandchildren, Dorcas and Natalie Boyle.

PERKINS—The many friends of Mrs. I. O. Perkins of Auburndale, formerly of this city, extend their sympathies on the death of her daughter, Mrs. Emma E. Perkins of Part Chester, N. Y. She leaves, besides her husband, Joseph E. Perkins, two sons, Armand and Eddie; her mother, and a sister in the west, and two brothers. The body will be brought to this city for burial.

MCARTHY—Mrs. Sabina McCarthy, wife of Dominick McCarthy, died Saturday morning at her home, 270 Elmwood street, St. Patrick's parish, died yesterday morning at her home, 270 Elmwood street. Besides her husband, Joseph E. McCarthy, two daughters, Mary and Catherine; three sisters, Nora and Catherine Mullany of this city, and Mrs. Mary Bryne and brother, Hugh, in Ireland, and several nieces and nephews.

HANNING—Donald Manning, a well known resident of Centralville, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 532 Pleasant avenue. He is survived by his wife, Julia (Sullivan) Manning; four daughters, Mrs. Robert Smith and Anna, Mary and Julia Manning; two brothers, Thomas and John; three sisters, Mary and Josephine Manning and Mrs. Catherine Hoar, the latter of Worcester.

CRONIN—Mrs. Margaret J. Cronin, a well known and highly respected member of the St. Patrick's parish, died early Sunday morning at her home, 288 Plain street. She leaves her husband, Patrick J.; two daughters, Miss Jeannie Cronin of this city and Mrs. James E. Mahoney of Cambridge, and one son, James H. Cronin. She was a member of the Holy Rosary society of the Sacred Heart church.

COGGSHALL—Willis Hayden Coggshall died Sunday morning at 566 Chelmsford street, after a long illness, at the age of 62 years, 11 months and 20 days. His Coggshall was a member of the Part Chester, 23, B.P.O.E.

The body was removed to the rooms of Undertaker William H. Saunders, 217 Appleton street.

FUNERAL NOTICES

CRONIN—The funeral of Mrs. Margaret J. Cronin will take place Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from her late home, 288 Plain street. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. Friends will please omit flowers. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

LAFFERRIERE—David Lafferriere, 59 years, residing at 51 East Meadow road, Pawtucketville, was found dead in bed early Sunday morning. Associate Medical Examiner Alling viewed the body and attributed death to a cerebral hemorrhage. Deceased leaves one son, David Jr. The body was later removed to his son's home at 21 West Fifth avenue, Pawtucketville.

DAN—Charles A. Dan, a former resident of Lowell, died suddenly last evening at his home, 29 Newbury st., Worcester. At one time he had been an overseer in the Massachusetts mills and at the Lowell hosptial. Of recent years he was a state inspector of factories. His age was 75 years, 10 months. Besides his wife, he is survived by one son.

HOYLE—Elmer Boyle, aged 11 months, beloved child of William and Marie May Boyle, died this morning at his parents' home, 110 South Walker street.

O'HARE—Mary J. O'Hare, a well known resident of this city, died this morning at her late home, 3 Kingsman street. The deceased had been employed by the U. S. Cartridge Co. for the past year and had never been less than her father, John O'Hare; two brothers, John J. of this city and Frank J. O'Hare of Cambridge, Mass. Funeral notice later.

FUNERALS

COGGSHALL—The body of Willis Hayden Coggshall was sent yesterday afternoon to New Bedford, Mass., where funeral services were held and burial took place. The funeral arrangements were attended by Undertaker William H. Saunders.

BERGERON—The funeral of Marcel Bergeron, son of Ernest and Anna Bergeron, took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his parents, 219 Middle street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

LACERTE—The funeral of Theresa Lacerte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacerte, took place Saturday afternoon at 216 High street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

DUCHESNE—The funeral of Arthur Duchesne, son of Arthur and Leida Duchesne, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his parents, 15 Jacques street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

TSIRIDAS—The funeral of Gregoire Tsiridas, son of George and Sophia Tsiridas, took place yesterday morning at 10:45 o'clock from the home of his parents, and services were held at 11 o'clock in the Greek Orthodox church. Burial was in the family lot in the Edison cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

McCAHON—The funeral of Mrs. Sabina McCarthy will take place Wednesday morning from her late home, 210 Elmwood street, at 8:30. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in St. Patrick's cemetery.

MCARTHY—The funeral of Mrs. Sabina McCarthy will take place Wednesday morning from her late home, 210 Elmwood street, at 8:30. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in St. Patrick's cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We the undersigned, wish to express our sincere thanks to our many relatives, friends and neighbors who by their floral and spiritual offerings and words of sympathy helped to lessen the burden of sorrow placed upon us by the death of our beloved wife and mother. To one and all we feel deeply grateful and their kindness will ever be remembered by us.

Bernard Brady and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We the undersigned, wish to thank you this means of expressing our sincere thanks to all our relatives and friends who so kindly assisted us in the hour of our bereavement at the death of our beloved son, John Bloomfield.

We are especially grateful to those who sent floral offerings and spiritual

bouquets.

The Bloomfield Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere

thanks to our kind relatives, neighbors and friends who by their kindly gifts and beautiful floral offerings help to lighten our grief at the loss of our beloved son, John.

We are especially grateful to those who sent floral offerings and spiritual

bouquets.

The Bloomfield Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere

thanks to all our relatives and friends who by their floral and spiritual

offerings and words of sympathy

helped to lessen the burden of sorrow

placed upon us by the death of our beloved son, John Bloomfield.

We are especially grateful to those who sent floral offerings and spiritual

bouquets.

The Bloomfield Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere

thanks to all our relatives and friends

who by their floral and spiritual

offerings and words of sympathy

helped to lessen the burden of sorrow

placed upon us by the death of our beloved son, John Bloomfield.

We are especially grateful to those who sent floral offerings and spiritual

bouquets.

The Bloomfield Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere

thanks to all our relatives and friends

who by their floral and spiritual

offerings and words of sympathy

helped to lessen the burden of sorrow

placed upon us by the death of our beloved son, John Bloomfield.

We are especially grateful to those who sent floral offerings and spiritual

bouquets.

The Bloomfield Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere

thanks to all our relatives and friends

who by their floral and spiritual

offerings and words of sympathy

helped to lessen the burden of sorrow

placed upon us by the death of our beloved son, John Bloomfield.

We are especially grateful to those who sent floral offerings and spiritual

bouquets.

The Bloomfield Family.

CARD OF THANKS</b

GERMANS CAPTURE RIGA RUSSIANS IN FLIGHT

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Germans have captured Riga, chief gateway on the road to Petrograd.

Again part of the Russian army refused to fight, and fled to the north when the Germans who had crossed the wide Dvina river at Ushkub had retreated attacks toward the city.

The Russian artillery, true to its traditions, made every effort to close the breach, and loyal infantry made vigorous counter attacks, but could not stem the flood.

With the enemy sweeping all before him toward the city from the south west the situation became hopeless, and the order was given to abandon the city. Military forces and civilians in full flight are streaming northward toward the Russian capital, burning villages and laying waste the country as they run.

Prize of Great Value

So great and sudden a triumph has not fallen to German arms since Warsaw's capture. Little, the big French city, like Warsaw and Bucharest, has no commanding strategic value, and Antwerp was from the first closed by Dutch neutrality and the blockade.

Riga, the deep gulf, gives a natural base for combined German sea and land operations against a foe inferior on both elements. The Russian Baltic fleet, based on Cronstadt and Ingolf, was the hottest of the extremists' revolt against the provisional government at Petrograd.

After holding out against Hindenburg's utmost efforts in 1915 and 1916, Riga has fallen before a smaller foe in three days.

Road to Petrograd Opened Wide

The evacuation of the great city recalls the statement of Gen. Korniloff, commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, at the Moscow conference: "If our army does not help us to hold the shore of the Gulf of Riga the road to Petrograd will be opened wide."

While it is believed that the Germans will undertake to penetrate to the Russian capital over an inhospitable road, 350 miles in length, bleak and almost impassable for armies, nevertheless, the news is considered serious, for it shows that the Russian army is far from the recovery which has been so often predicated.

The abandonment of the city of Riga became necessary, when, through the instability of Russian regiments, the Germans were able to cross the Dvina river at Ushkub.

The German victory made it necessary to make necessary a rearrangement of a part of the remaining Russian lines, as it turns the northern flank.

Use of the port of Riga is limited by ice conditions that will prevail later. It is virtually certain that all Russian naval vessels will make their escape to the north.

Garrison Yielded Quietly

Germany's offensive on the Riga front began Saturday by an attack on the Dvina position, followed by artillery preparation which lasted several hours. Russian troops defending the Dvina river withdrew and the Germans succeeded in throwing two bridges across the Dvina and passing to the eastern bank.

The Russian infantry, in spite of the brilliant record of the artillery, which destroyed one of the enemy's bridges, could not stop the German thrust, and the enemy, taking advantage of this, rapidly developed his success and began an advance northward. Russian counter attacks against him were unsuccessful.

The Russian official account says:

"On the left bank of the river Dvina, to the west of Riga, our troops, toward the morning of Sunday, retired to the line of Ullerlingskof, Medem and Danilen.

In the direction of Ushkub, on the north bank of the Dvina, in the course of Saturday and Sunday, the Germans conducted stubborn attacks, chiefly on the front Satal-Melnuor-Skripto-Lausin and the confluence of the River Oger. Toward Sunday evening they succeeded in penetrating our positions on the river Jaksel, in the region of Melnuor and Skripto.

Efforts to Regain Positions Failed

"Some of the detachments voluntarily left their positions and are retreating to the north. Efforts to restore the positions after counter-attacks gave no definite results."

"In view of the threatening situation created in the Riga region the order has been given for the abandonment of this region."

"On the remainder of the front there were fusillades which were more intense in the direction of Vilna."

"Romanian front, in the direction of Palkash, the enemy attacked Romanian positions near Gherla and Vatra several times yesterday, but was repulsed with large losses. There were fusillades on the remainder of the front."

Russians Give Up, Says Berlin

Berlin last night announced the capture of Riga. The statement says:

"After careful preparation, German divisions on Sunday morning crossed the Dvina on both sides of Ushkub. The infantry crossing was preceded by a heavy bombardment by artillery and infantry bombs, and by artillery and mine throwers. A footing was gained on the northern bank of the river after a short fight. Where the Russians offered resistance they were driven back by vigorous attacks. The movements of our troops are in progress and are proceeding according to our plans."

"The enemy gave up his positions west of the Dvina, owing to our advance. Our divisions are moving toward them also, while fighting with the Russian rearguard. Their columns may of every kind are making their way in a northeasterly direction along the roads leading out of Riga. Burning villages and farms mark the route taken by the retreating west wing of the 12th Russian army."

"In the river valleys on the northeastern slope of the wooded Carpathians the fighting actively revived."

"In the mountains between the Su-chita and Pintia rivers our regiments by counter-attacks repulsed strong Russo-Romanian attacks. The Romanians also vainly attacked near Murascenti."

PLAY TENNIS FOR WAR

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Six of the national tennis stars who are playing for the benefit of the ambulance section fund of the National Lawn Tennis Association staged a return engagement in Rochester today. The program called for a women's singles match between Miss Mabel Blazstedt and Miss Mary Brown; a men's singles between John R. Strachan and R. Lindley Murray, and a mixed doubles.

"PIED PIPER OF AMERICA"
VISITS LOWELL

Dr. Louis Hirsch, "Pied Piper of America," is registered at the New American hotel and now it is up to the rats whose instinct, the professor declares, is greater than human intelligence, to get a move on and shake the dust of Lowell from their little tootsies for death is certainly staring them in the face.

Unlike his rival, the Pied Piper of Hamelin, the "Pied Piper of America" does not go about with a trusty flute always ready to be used against the rat kingdom. The more modern Pied Piper uses chemicals instead of music in dispelling the rodents.

The doctor has come to Lowell with a classified list he has been engaged by several of the mills and others, including storekeepers, to do the exterminating act and he says he will make Lowell a ratless if not a spotless town.

The doctor is also death on fleas and cockroaches. So it would seem his efforts were up to the rats to rally their excuses for existence to the dogs, and for cockroaches and bedbugs to beat a hasty retreat for the bughouse. Their time has come.

The doctor, as heretofore stated, does not pursue the method of the pied piper, who forced the rats into the river when he blew his flute or cornet. But he claims his methods have the same effect and promises Lowell that the rats will be running out of their holes in droves and willingly dying in the streets when they have once tasted of his knockout drops.

He also claims the bug killing record. "Show me a room in which there are 10,000 bedbugs and I can murder them all in one minute," he said. But he does not feed all vermin the same poison for he says what is good for one is poison for the other.

Dr. Hirsch, in applying the rule of "killing the female rat is rule," he declares, "Among humans, the male is master, or has been. But the female rat is more intelligent and more vicious than the male. The male always will fight his mate for the lives of his young, but he is driven off."

"For rat life is merely a survival of the fittest. In a rat family the weakest die, only the strongest live. We never see a blind rat, or one that is lame or crippled. A female rat will work hard to rear her young, shake up the little rat in her womb, shake it gently, tongue it in the ear. The young rat must show the mother it is strong enough to take the battles of life, or she kills it."

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb. electric iron.

WILL AWARD CONTRACT TO MR. DRAPEAU

The municipal council will hold a regular meeting tomorrow morning at which time it is expected the contract for the mason and brick work for the new addition to the Bartlett school will be awarded William Drapau. It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the council Patrick O'Hearn, one of the contractors, who turned in his bid for the mason and brick work of the new addition, protested against the granting of the contract to Mr. Drapau on the grounds that he was the lowest bidder.

At that time Mr. O'Hearn contended that Mr. Drapau did not include in his bid the construction of a retaining wall, while his (Mr. O'Hearn) did, and accordingly Mr. Drapau's bid was higher than that of Mr. O'Hearn. This morning Mr. Drapau called at the office of the city solicitor at city hall and took the following oath:

I, William Drapau, of Lowell, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, being first duly sworn, do on oath depose and say, that in submitting my bid for the construction of the new addition to the Bartlett school in said Lowell, I included in said bid the construction of retaining walls on the west and south sides of said proposed addition, further deposit and say, that prior to submitting my bid I was instructed and informed by the architect that the construction of said retaining walls would have to be included in and made part of such bid.

William Drapau,
Justice of the Peace.

Street Department Ready

According to a letter sent to the officials of the Bay State Street Railway Co. by the city solicitor the street department is ready and willing to go ahead at any time on the macadamizing or rebuilding of Westford street from Marlborough as soon as the Bay State Co. installs new rails in that portion of the street. The letter is as follows:

August 31, 1917.
H. E. Farrington, Superintendent Bay State Street Railway Co., Lowell, Mass.
Dear Sir:
It has been called to my attention that the officers of the Bay State Street Railway Co. have stated that Westford street from Marlborough to the end of your line would be equipped with a new rail as soon as the city of Lowell, or its street department, re-

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of

Castoria

RUMMAGE PRICES

On the Balance of Our Summer Garments.

Six more weeks to wear. Prices that will pay you to buy them and lay away for next year. Remarked and ready Wednesday at 9:30.

CLOTH AND SILK SUITS

Selling to $35. $10
Choice.....

Rummage Wednesday

18 FIBRE SWEATERS Left, Sold at $8.98.
Choice.....

20 DOZEN BILLIE BURKE PERCALE HOUSE DRESSES, Bought to Sell at $1.50. At Rummage Sale.....

No more when these are gone.

9 WASH SKIRTS LEFT

Sold at $12.50. $5.00
Choice.....

600 Odd Garments at Prices
That Will Sell Them
On Sight

RUMMAGE

SECOND FLOOR
SILK DRESSES

$10, $12, $14

Regardless of Price

CHERRY & WEBB

SALE

GORHAM AND SUMMER STS.

Tel. 3890-1-2-3

Wednesday Specials

THAT PROVE OUR UNDERSELLING SUPREMACY

Potatoes

Very Best
Smooth White
Cookers. Pk.

29c

Butter, lb. 41c | EGGS, doz. 38c

Pearl Tapioca, lb.....10c | Pink Salmon, tall cans, 13c

NO TELEPHONE ORDERS TAKEN

Tenderloin Steak, lb. 25c

Cut Up Chicken

Ready to Fricassée. Lb.

25c

Pastry Flour

Snow Crust,
The Best Grade

Money Can Buy.

24½ Lb. Bag.

$1.50

NO TELEPHONE ORDERS TAKEN

Sirloin Steak

Note
Our Price, Ib.

23c

NO TELEPHONE ORDERS TAKEN

Top Round Steak, lb. 23c

Shoulder's

Fancy
Small Lean. Lb.

19½c

Fruit Jelly, tin pail....15c | Tomatoes, can.....13c

WELCOME SOAP, Wednesday Only, Cake.....5c

Native Red Tomatoes Bushel
Ripe to Can 73c

MARSHMALLOW FLUFF, Big 25c Can, Each.....15c

Arrow Laundry Starch, pkg. 5c | Pearl Soap, 6 Bars....25c

Blueberries, Can.....12½c | Raspberries, Can.....12½c

SHRIMP, Can.....11c | CLAMS, Can.....9c

CREAM OF WHEAT, Fresh From the Mill, Pkg.....16c

SINN FEINERS ATTACK AMERICAN SAILORS

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Attacks on American sailors on Sunday night are reported in a despatch from Cork to the Chronicle. It is said that gangs of young men paraded the streets and performing dirge-like soliloquies. Some were beaten. One party raided the premises of an officers' training corps and stole 56 rifles, 30 revolvers and a number of swords, some of which had been recovered.

One instance cited is that of two Americans who were attacked on the chief street of Cork, a young woman with them being insulted and having her hat torn off. The correspondent reports that the sailors were good targets for the attack and as far as could be learned did not retaliate. They escaped on a tram car.

All the girls who suffered at the hands of the crowds, the despatch says, belong to the respectable middle class.

An attempt was made at 11 p. m. to break the windows where Americans are staying, the despatch continues, but after a short siege the attackers departed. Several parties paraded the streets singing Sinn Fein songs and performing dirge-like soliloquies. Some were beaten. One party raided the premises of an officers' training corps and stole 56 rifles, 30 revolvers and a number of swords, some of which had been recovered.

One instance cited is that of two Americans who were attacked on the chief street of Cork, a young woman with them being insulted and having her hat torn off. The correspondent reports that the sailors were good targets for the attack and as far as could be learned did not retaliate. They escaped on a tram car.

All the girls who suffered at the hands of the crowds, the despatch says, belong to the respectable middle class.

Around two of the boys, then got three more and eventually got the other two, the latter being located on the Burlington road.

When questioned by the police the boys said they left Somerville late Saturday night with a man who took them out for an automobile ride, but had abandoned them on the outskirts of this city where they "bunked" for the night. Sunday they spent wandering around the city and early Monday morning started back for Somerville and when they reached the Bent Hall station they made the break.

To live or die, which? It depends on a few words, viz.: Dow's Diarrhoea and Cholera Syrup. The great family.

ASK FOR and GET

Horlick's

The Original

Fair tonight and Wednesday; moderate north to northeast winds.

ESTABLISHED 1878

LOWELL MASS. TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 4 1917

PRICE ONE CENT

REFUSE TO ARBITRATE B. & M. STRIKE

107 Killed in Air Raid on England

VOTE ON WAR PROFITS WITHIN 24 HOURS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—With the final vote on the war profits division of the war revenue bill to be taken by the senate within the next 24 hours, high tax advocates are making their last stand today in the effort for further increases. The war profits features which already have caused so much dispute must be disposed of before tomorrow night.

Although overwhelmingly beaten yesterday for the second time, high tax senators sought again today to have other proposals adopted. One was an amendment by Senator La Follette proposing a 50 per cent. gross levy on war profits and the other was Senator Hollis' substitute for the finance committee's compromise proposal, levying a total of $1,250,000,000. Committee express confidence that the provision will stand.

High Tax Men Again beaten

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The group fighting the finance committee's scheme of war profits taxation was defeated again today when the senate rejected Senator Hollis' proposal to strike out the finance committee's new compromise provision extending the war profits taxes or peace profits over 10 per cent. estimated to raise $125,000,000 additional.

Amendments voted down yesterday were those of Senator La Follette, one proposing a flat increase of 70 per cent. over present rates and the other a 50 per cent. increase. They were rejected 50 to 29 and 50 to 17, respectively, after a short clash.

Senator Frelinghuysen opposing the La Follette proposal said it was fraught with great danger to business interests.

"Impose such unfair taxes and impair industry," he said, "would practically make certain the victory of Germany."

Senator Borah addressed the senate at length, in favor of a tax of at least 60 per cent. Citing the increasing expense estimates of Secretary Taft, Senator Borah said he believed they ultimately would reach between $22,000,000 and $23,000,000,000 and possibly $25,000,000,000 for the first year, including loans to the allies.

"This bill will finally provide $2,500,000,000 in taxes," he continued. "There is no record in history of a shrinking from duty by a legislative body."

Opponents met this war with courage and amplitude of means, but when we meet taxation we shrink from performance of our manifest duty.

"Is $2,500,000,000 the standard of patriotism that men of wealth are willing to contribute to the war? Is that responding to the call of our country? On what theory can it be said that we would break down business or make the war unpopular if business makes 20 per cent. more out of war than in peace?" What is real is that dollars and cents are not easily and blood that will lightly lay the conscription hand of the Government upon us and bring them to the support of the war.

"After business efficiency is protected, I would take every dollar over $1,000 of the income of every man in the United States."

Dr. Elphege A. Beaudet of West Sixth street, received his commission this morning as first lieutenant in the U. S. medical corps and he is now awaiting orders to report for duty.

Dr. Beaudet was born in Canada 27 years ago and came to this country while in his teens. He received his degree of M.D. at Tufts college, Boston in 1915, after which he was connected for a year at the General hospital in Lewiston, Me. In 1916 he came to this city and opened offices in West Centralville, where he is still located.

TRADE UNIONS OPPOSE PEACE CONFERENCE

BLACKPOOL, Eng., Sept. 4.—The trade union congress today placed itself on record as opposed to participation in the international socialist congress at Stockholm, abandoning the idea of sending British delegates.

Machinists, Toolmakers and Specialists

Charter Now Open

Initiation Fee $3.00

Inquire any evening at Machinists' Hall, Hennessey Bldg., Central St., 7 to 9 o'clock.

FARRELL & CONATON
PLUMBERS, STEAM, GAS AND WATER FITTERS
243 Dutton St. Telephone 1513

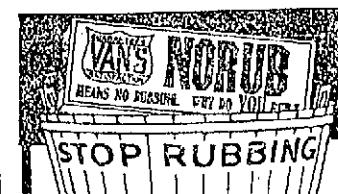

Gaffouxs ANTI CORNERS

The War

Has brought many upheavals in business and business methods. Has it made any difference in your business? Is it going to make any difference this fall?

The people of Lowell are good soldiers. They really have lots of money and they spend it wisely and where they get the most value for their dollar. Our recent furniture sale was proof of this. Our furniture store was crowded with customers last every day. We are quite satisfied with the receipts from our furniture sale.

We are entering the fall season with satisfaction. Our business is growing very fast and we look forward to an extraordinarily big business this coming year.

It's the rubbing that wears out your clothes and makes washing hard work. Use VAN'S NORUB and have cleaner clothes and no rubbing.

5c and 10c packages at your dealer's

Van Zile Co., N.Y. West Hoboken, N.J.

DRAFTED MEN IN ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY REPORT FOR FINAL INSTRUCTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Drafted men of the five per cent. quota going to the National Army cantonments were requested to attend the meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening.

The message follows:

"To the Soldiers of the National Army: You are undertaking a great duty, the heart of the whole country to take the oath of office. The president is going to the capitol to take the oath of office. The Grand Army of the Republic swept by its review after the Civil war and in recent months on the occasion of the annual reunion, marched the survivors of the gray.

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the sun sets this field in Lowell.

Continued to Page 8

The

CANADIAN FOOD CONTROLLER

minion are not able to supply more than 50 per cent of canned vegetables for the coming season. At the same time, the farmers and market gardeners in response to appeals to their patriotism have produced bountiful crops, which are being left on their hands to spoil. The food controller is determined that this fresh produce shall be taken in preference to that which has been put into a form that can be exported or used when fresh vegetables are no longer available.

The order, which will remain in force throughout the dominion until further notice, forbids the retail sale and purchase of peas, beans, tomatoes, beets, celery, corn, spinach, rhubarb and pumpkins preserved in cans or other containers. In cases where he deems it necessary or expedient, the food controller may issue licenses for the sale of canned vegetables. The regulations, moreover, do not apply to lumber, mining and construction camps, nor to dining cars, since these enterprises cannot readily use fresh vegetables.

Investigations showed Food Controller Hanna that the canners of the do-

TWO MEN DROWNED AT OLD ORCHARD

OLD ORCHARD, Me., Sept. 4.—Two young men lost their lives while bathing in the surf near the pier yesterday. They were Hubert T. Murphy of Lynn, Mass., and Wesley Tibbets of Dover, N. H., both aged about 19.

A young woman from Cambridge, Mass., who refused to give her name to the police, was rescued from the water after a hard struggle by Geo. A. Taylor of Boston and L. B. Edgar of Brookline, bathers who went to the rescue when Murphy, Tibbets and the young woman, all in the same party, were caught in the heavy undertow and found themselves unable to swim back.

When the two were first observed to be in distress persons on the beach attempted to launch a dory to put out after them but each time the boat was thrown back on the sands by the unusually heavy breakers.

Taylor and Edgar, who were in the water a short distance from where Murphy, Tibbets and the young woman were struggling, swam to their assistance. Murphy, who was a poor swimmer, went down before the rescuers reached him. Both men then turned their attention to the girl, leaving Tibbets to struggle alone. They succeeded in getting her ashore in a half-conscious condition. Tibbets meanwhile had become exhausted and gone down.

Neither of the bodies of the drowned young men had been found last night.

Rescued at Hampton

HAMPTON BEACH, N. H., Sept. 4.—Charles H. Bowers of 98 Cottage street, Lancaster, Mass., was nearly drowned in the surf yesterday.

Bowers was about 100 yards from shore when the undertow, said to be the worst of the season, took him off his feet and he was being swept seawards with Paul Behan and James Keefe of Haverhill, who were nearby in a canoe, went to his assistance. He was taken into the canoe exhausted and a start made for the shore.

The little craft had gone a short distance when it was overtaken by the breakers and all three of the occupants were thrown into the sea.

Lifeguard Charles Cassidy and others had arrived in the meantime and the three men were assisted to the shore. A physician suggested Bowers.

The high tide yesterday did a vast amount of damage at White Island, where about 30 feet of the point was washed away and several cottages badly undermined.

What a pity she doesn't know!

Resinol would clear her skin

"She would be a pretty girl, if it wasn't for that pimply, blotchy complexion!" But the regular use of Resinol Soap, aided at first by a little Resinol Ointment, would probably make it clear, fresh and charming. If a poor skin is your handicap, begin using the Resinol treatment and see how quickly it improves.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are excellent, too, for the care of the hair, dispelling dandruff and keeping the hair livid and lustrous. All druggists sell Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment.

The Resinol Treatment contains nothing that could injure or irritate the most sensitive skin.

Lowell, Tuesday, Sept. 4, 1917

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Underpriced Basement

READY-TO-WEAR SECTION

Wash Skirts at 69c Each, $1.00 to $1.50 value.

To close the balance of our Wash Skirts, made in a large variety of styles, fine white pique, poplin, gabardine and linen, worth from $1.00 to $1.50. To Close at 69c Each

Dry Goods Section

PLAID BLANKETS AT $1.25 A PAIR

One case of Good Cotton Blankets, assorted plaids, good heavy quality, slightly imperfect. $2.00 value. At $1.25 a Pair

BATES CREPE AT 15c YARD

About 4000 yards of best quality of Bates' Crepes, in large remnants. All new fall patterns in stripes and plaids, fine material for house dresses and children's school dresses. 25c value on the piece. At 15c a Yard

FRENCH SERGE AT 25c YARD

Mill remnants of fine French Serge. Assorted colors. 32 inches wide, fine quality for school dresses. At 25c a Yard

YARD WIDE OUTING FLANNEL AT 14c YARD

Four cases of Mill Remnants of yard wide Outing Flannel, large assortment of patterns, in light colors. 20c value on the piece. At 14c a Yard

Men's Furnishing Section

BASEMENT

MEN'S HOSE AT 12 1-2c PAIR

Four cases of Columbia Heavy Cotton Hose, black, 19c value. At 12 1-2c a Pair

MEN'S PANTS

300 Pairs of Men's Pants, made of good fine worsted, in all new stripes. Pants made with good strong trimming. $2.50 value.

Boys' Clothing Section

BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS

Our fall assortment of School Suits is now complete. Suits made of fine wool material. Norfolk style. One or two pairs of pants. Special value....$2.49, $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00

Plant Juice Has Made Him Like New

Lewis A. Lovering, of 82 Parkview Ave., Lowell, Had Indigestion and Dyspepsia

That Plant Juice is repeating its success here, is proven by the large number of local testimonials received daily from people in signed statements, telling of the great benefit they have received from its use.

LEWIS A. LOVERING

Not a day passes but what numbers of Lowell people call to thank the Plant Juice Man for what his remedy has done for them, and to congratulate him on his phenomenal success in Lowell.

Only the other day Mr. Lewis A. Lovering, who resides at No. 82 Parkview avenue, and is a well known blacksmith of this city, having lived here all his life, stated,

"I have been troubled for the past ten years with Indigestion and dyspepsia; had headaches, dizzy spells, could not sleep at night and got very weak and completely run down. Almost everything I ate would cause me distress and I was badly bloated with gas; had night sweats and my liver and kidneys were out of order; I was badly constipated and had taken all kinds of medicine but never got any permanent relief until I began to take your Plant Juice. I now sleep well at night, and can eat anything I want and digest it; am not constipated and it has put my liver and kidneys in fine conditions. I have gained in weight and never felt better in my life. Plant Juice has made me well and I am glad to recommend it to others."

Plant Juice acts almost like magic in stomach trouble, gas fermentation, heavy, distressed feeling after meals and on retiring. It attacks and destroys all poisons in the blood, corrects diseased conditions of the liver and kidneys and restores them to normal condition. It banishes rheumatism from the blood.

The Plant Juice Man is at The Dow's Drug Store, in Merrimack St., where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

EMERSON PLAYERS OPEN THIRD SEASON OF STOCK AT OPERA HOUSE

Yesterday afternoon and evening introduced the Emerson Players directed by Kendal Weston for a third and apparently successful stock season at the Lowell Opera House. It seemed natural to have them back in Lowell again.

"Shirley Kaye," an Elsie Ferguson vehicle, much younger and wiser than the offering produced yesterday, and the present company brought out every bit of its innate goodness. Here's the cast of characters in order of appearance:

T. J. Magen, a railroad king; Jerome Kennedy, his manager; Roy Walling, Stukeley, his footman; Kenneth Fleming, Mrs. Magen, his wife; DeWolfe Hopper, his daughter; Gladys McLeod, Paul D'Anchise, his social secretary; Robert Laurence, Shirley Kays of the first families, Winfield Wellington, Egerton Kays, her father; E. J. Ellis Kirkham, Mr. Dingwall, his solicitor; Albert Berg, Mrs. Bayles, his sister; May Gerald Peters, his valet....Porter Fredericks, The Earl of Rosslyn; Charles Cramby, Carol Vallon, Mrs. Mary Morris, Joseph, her servant; Mrs. Fredericks.

"Shirley Kaye," is what press agents get in terming a comedy drama. This means that it does not embrace that oftentimes unpleasant element called farce, nor, on the other hand, does it bore the audience with a tremendous tragedy. It is a pleasant story, simply told and admirably enacted by a capable company. The plot is an old one yet seeming all the more enjoyable for that reason. It has to do with the traditional western family at that time headed by a railroad magnate—and their attempts to enter New York society. Their efforts at first meet with failure but with the arrival of the manager of one of the greatest roads and his meeting with a pleasant young girl who is in the front line trenches of society, an effective solution to family difficulties is effected, a pleasant love affair is developed and with the fall of the curtain everybody is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she is happy.

The new company gave the piece admirable treatment. Miss Winifred Wellington took the leading and title part, "Shirley Kaye." As the young lady who was tired of society she

is happy.

The Bon Marché

DRY GOODS CO.

Special Showing and Sale in Our Drapery Department

Most complete line of Curtains of every description, Portieres, Couch Covers, Cretonnes, Silkolene, Curtain Yards, Window Shades. A visit to this department will interest you.

COLUMBIA WINDOW SHADES—Rust proof, dust proof, nickel or copper plated fixtures and ring pull, the convenience of the ready to hang package, with all necessary fixtures enclosed—the price of the shades are the same as

FAREWELL RECEPTION TO 'ENLISTED HIBERNIANS'

Members of Divisions 8 and 11 of the A. O. H. were the guests of the Central council at a gathering in A. O. H. hall last night at which a farewell reception was tendered the enlisted men of the order. There was a large attendance and considerable enthusiasm and patriotism was displayed during the carrying out of the program.

The meeting was presided over by State Secretary Daniel Reilly, who introduced the speakers. The speakers included Rev. James J. Kerrigan, chaplain of the order; James O'Sullivan, Daniel Cosgrove, Major William Conroy of the O. M. I. cadets; President Edward J. Flannery of Division 8; J. C. Rourke and others. The purpose of the gathering was to accord a general farewell to the drafted and enlisted men, of which there were about 35.

Rev. Fr. Kerrigan during the course of his remarks said: "You will go forth to fight under the starry flag, under the eyes of those who fought before you, and under the eyes of those you leave behind, especially the members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians." He closed by giving them his blessing and quoting from the bible, he said: "The just man says 'The Lord is my protector,' so I say was opened with patriotic selections."

The entertainment of the evening was the entertainment of the evening was opened with patriotic selections.

Bevo

A BEVERAGE

—the home drink

Besides its popularity at drug stores, fountains and restaurants, Bevo has found a welcome place in the home. A family beverage—a guest offering—a table drink that goes perfectly with all food. As a suggestion for Sunday supper—Sweet red or green peppers stuffed with cream cheese and chopped nuts or olives, served on lettuce leaves. French dressing. Cold meat. Toasted crackers. Bevo for everyone. A beverage that tastes like no other soft drink. Pure, wholesome and nutritious. Bevo—the all-year-round soft drink.

Sold in bottles only and bottled exclusively by

ANHEUSER-BUSCH—ST. LOUIS

24B

Free Checking
Booth at the Information Desk
Street Floor

Chalifoux's CORNER

Ladies' Rest and Waiting Room
Second Floor

Our Change of Management Sale

IS STILL GOING ON IN OUR

Women's Cloak and Suit Department

HERE ARE SOME WORTH WHILE VALUES:

SUMMER SKIRTS, regular $1.98 and $2.50 value.	$1.00
New Buyer's Price.....
RAINCOATS, regular $5.00 value.	$2.88
New Buyer's Price.....
FALL COATS, regular $8.98 value.	$4.44
New Buyer's Price.....
BLACK SILK SKIRTS, regular $9.98 value.	$5.00
New Buyer's Price.....
BLACK POPLIN SUITS, regular $16.50 value.	$7.50
New Buyer's Price.....
$25.00 and $30.00 SUITS AND COATS—	$14.95
New Buyer's Price.....
EVENING DRESSES, WRAPS and PARTY DRESSES (most of them Poiret Models) are Selling at LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

Lovely Blouses

We are now showing a wonderfully varied assortment of New Styles, Materials and Combinations. You will find here both Cotton and Silk Blouses with newest collars and sleeves, variously trimmed or embroidered. Very modestly priced.

White and Colored Smocks, regular value $1.50. Special..... 98c
White Voile and Roman Stripe Smocks, good assortment to choose from, all sizes; regular $3.00 value. Priced..... 1.98
New Fall Blouses, in voiles, all over embrodered with and without frills and jabots, extra good value, sizes from 36 to 52. Priced 1.98
Georgette Crepe and Crepe de Chine Blouses with large lace trimmed sailor collar and frills; regular $4.00 value..... 2.98
Second Floor

Sweaters

We have them in all the Most Gorgeous Colors. Just the thing for these cool evenings.

Shetland Wool Sweater Coats, colors Kelly green, open, rose and purple. With large white sailor collar and belt; regular $6.50 value 5.00
Fibre Silk Sweater Coats, in all the high colors and two toned black and white, and all black. Extra good value:.. $7.50
Heavy Wool Sweater Coats in all high colors —purple, rose and open..... $10.00
Pure Thread Silk Sweater Coats in all high colors 15.00

BASEMENT SECTION

Women's Afternoon Dresses, white crepe, colored percales and ginghams..... 95c
Women's Sport Coats, extra good value.... $1.00
Women's Gingham Dresses, and Middy Dresses, sizes from 8 to 14..... 95c
Women's Gingham and Black Sateen Work Waists, specially good value..... 49c
White and Colored Voile Waists, all sizes, extra good value..... 59c, 2 for $1.00
White and Colored Seersucker Petticoats, extra good value 49c
Black Sateen Petticoats 49c

Children's Dresses and Rompers, extra good value 19c
Women's Black Bloomers, lace trimmed..... 39c
$1.50 and $1.25 Outing Skirts reduced to.... 66c
Well made and excellent fitting Outing Skirts in all sizes, several pretty colored striped effects to select from, on sale in the Basement.

Women's and Misses' Fall Weight Coats $6.50 and $7.50 values, reduced to..... $3.33
Large assortment of colors and styles in many instances not more than one or two of a style.

FAMILY DOCTOR'S GOOD ADVICE

To Go On Taking "Fruit-a-tives"
Because They Did Her Good

ROCHON, JAN. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I had frequent dizzy spells and became greatly run down. A neighbor advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". I did so to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve, and he advised me to go on with "Fruit-a-tives".

I consider that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives" and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches—"try Fruit-a-tives" and you will get well". CORINE GAUDREAU.

50¢ a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25¢.

At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ogdensburg, N.Y.

by the Irish Volunteer Drum Corps, and a toast by Presiding Officer Daniel F. Reilly. Patrick Frawley sang "The Minstrel Boy," and a piano solo was given by Edward Bernard. John McCarroll and Joseph Wedge were heard in songs and Irish jig dancing exhibitions were given by Patrick Regan, P. J. Hunt, Patrick Flannery, P. J. O'Sullivan and Mr. O'Gara. George Sullivan also sang and was highly applauded. Rev. Fr. Kerrigan, as honorary guest, was escorted to the platform by James O'Sullivan amidst cheers from the gathering and President Flannery was conducted by Secretary Patrick Barrett.

After a personal leave-taking on the part of the members, the honor men were taken to the platform and with a farewell from Mr. Reilly, the band struck up "God Save Ireland," "The Red, White and Blue," "The Minstrel Boy" and other patriotic selections brought not a few tears from the gathering and with hearty cheers and "The Star Spangled Banner" the men of Divisions 8 and 11, Ancient Order of Hibernians gave a real send-off to the honor men among their ranks.

Members of the central council in charge of the evening were: President Edward J. Flannery, Vice President John McInerney, Secretary James McOsker and Treasurer Thomas Dorsey. The committee in charge was: M. G. Monahan, vice president of Division 8; John Kennedy of Division 11, John O'Sullivan of Division 11 and Hugh McGowan and Patrick Barrett of Division 8.

the Lord be with you." James O'Sullivan vouched for the fighting qualities of Irishmen in protecting an honorable flag such as the Stars and Stripes, and said that when Meagher called for men before the battle of Mary's Heights, it was easy to collect a division of Hibernians from among his numbers. "We are true," he said, "first to our God and next to our flag and our country."

In speaking of the just causes of the war in which we are now involved, Daniel Cosgrove said: "This is a war for humanity's sake, for the uprooting of autocracy and royalty the world over. Let us hear no discord. We are not fighting England's battles or the battles of any other country, but we are in the strife for the uplifting of democracy and honor." Major Conroy, in speaking of the advancement of good soldierly qualities said: "There is no better organization to further humanity's interests than that of the O. M. I. cadets."

President Flannery of Division 8, one of the few presidents to be included in the draft call, said: "All I have to do is to be a member of the American Legion in France, having served under the French colors at the Dardanelles, in Greece and in the trenches in France. The soldier returned with his bride, Melina A. J. Soulard, whom he married Aug. 1.

Mr. Collins left Lowell in May, 1913, with the idea of travel and went to France, where he engaged in teaching English and studying French. When the war broke out in Aug. 1914, with 26 other Americans he enlisted in the Foreign Legion and saw service in France for a time. Then he was sent to Algeria to join a corps headed for the Dardanelles, arriving at the latter place while the Dardanelles expedition was in process of dissolution. After a few weeks he was transferred to Serbia and remained there until December, 1915, at which time the Foreign Legion was driven back into Greece and of the 225 men in the legion only 15 survived. Mr. Collins was one of the survivors, and after a long and difficult retreat into Greece the Lowell man was wounded in the leg and was sent to hospital for treatment.

After convalescing Mr. Collins was removed to France, where he made application for admission to the Legion. His application was accepted but the atmosphere was too rare for his lungs and he was forced to give up the work.

He later returned to the infantry and took part in a number of important battles, among which was that of the Somme, during which he was made seriously ill by German gases. Again the Lowell man was removed to a hospital and was finally given a permanent discharge.

Mr. Collins is of the opinion that the war will continue for two years more, or that is, he says, the sentiment that now prevails in France. Speaking of the morale of the soldiers Mr. Collins said:

"I have seen many prisoner young Germans, 17 and 18 years old. Our men demands soldiers all the way from 17 to 50, but not in the numbers noted in German armies. Moreover, the morale of the French army is much better than that of the Germans. We have the spirit. The Germans, although still good fighters, are not waging war with the enthusiasm which marked their early campaigns.

"Of course there is a lot of sacrifice going on in France. The women are employed in all kinds of trades. They are on electric cars as conductors and motormen, and in the factories they are engaged principally as makers of munitions. They do farm work with all of the effectiveness of men."

"Throughout the country the morale is good. With the idea of victory ever before them, the people of France are ready to do everything in their power to expedite results. Two days a week they eat no meat. Two days a week they eat no potato. For lack of meat they eat uniform loaf of Jacob's meal. The idea is to be frugal that there may be sufficient for the future.

Mr. Collins said the German spies are numerous in France and a number of them are being seized and shot daily. The young men say he is through with the war game and hopes to make his home in Lowell.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Loyal Warne's Lodge, IO.O.E., A.L.L., was held last night in Odd Fellows building, Noble Grand John Carleford presiding. Owing to the absence of many of the officers on account of it being a holiday after attending to some routine business the meeting was adjourned until Monday evening, Sept. 18.

Wameet Staff association held its regular meeting in the same hall Sunday morning, Sept. 2. Vice President George Adams presided, as the president was absent. There were visitors from Merrimack Valley and Integrity lodges of this city, Asa Pollard Lodge of North Billerica and P. G. Herbert Rowley, an out of town member of this lodge, was also present. Regular business was transacted and committee reported. Among the latter was the outing committee, P. G. Arthur Capper, chairman, whose report on the staff outing held during the past week showed it to have been a success. The day was ideal and everybody was satisfied with the good time.

After the business session a delightful recital of songs was given by P. G. Frank Bowles, who was assisted by P. G. Fred Battye and Harry Barrett.

Edgar E. Rheuman, 675 Moody street, William McPherson, 113 Fulton st.

The following are to appear at 10 o'clock on the morning of Sept. 7: Leon Seymour, 25 Jewett st.; Edward Thibault, 601 Merrimack st.; Frank Wysocki, 23 Roy st.

STILL HOPE THAT OLIVER M. CHADWICK IS STILL ALIVE

The boy that Oliver M. Chadwick, the Lowell aviator reported missing several weeks ago, is still alive is being strengthened almost daily and the latest development is the arrival of a telegram from Amos Tuck, a Paris banker, who has interested himself in the recovery of the Lowell boy. The telegram was received last week by Austin K. Chadwick, the aviator's father and reads as follows:

Paris, Aug. 31, 1917.

Austin K. Chadwick, Lowell, Mass.—After seeing official report Oliver fell Aug. 14, informed by two German "Albatross." His aeroplane found later, but not Oliver. Possibly only wounded and prisoner. Tuck

TWO SMALL FIRES

An alarm from box 21 at 4:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon was for a fire in Saunders' block at the corner of Gorham and Summer streets.

An overheated oil stove was the cause of the fire, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

At 11:45 o'clock yesterday morning an alarm from box 125 summoned a portion of the department to a slight blaze on the roof of a building in Fenwick street. The fire was caused by sparks from a chimney, but it was quickly extinguished.

feet from the top of the hill. Mr. Illig found it necessary to shift from the gear he was using to negotiate the hill. In doing this his engine became stalled.

The automobile started to go down the hill backwards and the emergency breakaway brought him use but

Mr. Illig found the main gear not holding.

He applied the foot brake, but the machine had gained such momentum that the brake failed to hold.

The driver attempted to steer the machine backwards down the hill but after travelling for a short distance the automobile swerved to the right, struck a wooden fence and going over a low stone wall plunged down a 20-foot embankment and turned upside down.

The two men were pinned under the machine and the others ran to attract people living in the vicinity and they rushed to the assistance of the people in the machine.

Manager J. E. Dodge of Hood's farm was notified by telephone and a quick trip was made to the scene of the accident.

Mr. Dodge and other farm employees using the broken fence timbers, prised up the machine which pinned Mr. Illig and Mr. Fitzgerald beneath. The other men, mostly children and two children, who fell clear of the machine and landed on large and sharp stones in a small brook, were also given assistance. All were bleeding from ugly cuts, but no one was unconscious.

A hurry call was sent to St. John's hospital in this city as speedily as possible.

Oliver Illig, 55 Billings street, driver, fractured right hip.

Mrs. Victor Illig, 55 Billings street, fractured right ankle and abrasions of face.

Miss Catherine Illig, daughter, aged four years, numerous lacerations of head and traumatic shock were considered serious and he was immediately placed on the dangerous list.

Early yesterday, however, a marked improvement was noted and late in the day he was found able to return to Leominster. The other members of the party, including the Illig and Miss Tully, were also testing comfortably and out of danger.

Illig Julia Illig, daughter, aged two

MAJ. BUNAU VARILLA SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

PARIS, Sept. 4.—Maj. Philippe Bunau-Varilla was seriously wounded yesterday morning while on duty. Several fragments from a shell struck him in the right leg, which was so injured that amputation was considered necessary. After the amputation, Maj. Bunau-Varilla sent a message to his home asking his relatives not to be anxious concerning him, that he was content to suffer for his country.

Philippe Bunau-Varilla was director-general of the old French Pan-

TRACE DISEASE TO CONSTIPATION

One of the points on which different schools of medicine practically agree is that the effect of constipation on disease is directly traceable to intestinal putrefaction of stomach waste due to inactivity of the bowels, or constipation. The elimination process is an essential factor in digestion and on its proper functioning depends the welfare of the entire system.

Constipation is a condition that should never be neglected. As soon as the bowel becomes the slave of constipation, steps must be taken to slow up a little laxative should be taken. The combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsi, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended as a correct and natural way of getting gentle in an easy natural way without straining or other pain or discomfort. A trial bottle of this excellent family remedy can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 456 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

After the filing of a bankruptcy

W. H. A. BACON CO. FILES SCHEDULE SHOWING LIABILITIES OF $712,198

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—The W. & A. Bacon Co., department store owners whose business was recently placed in the hands of a receiver on petition of creditors in bankruptcy proceedings, today filed a schedule showing liabilities of $712,198. The amount of assets, the firm reported, has not been ascertained. With the schedule the company submitted an offer to settle with creditors on a basis of 33 1/3 cents on the dollar.

After the filing of a bankruptcy

B. F. Keith's Theatre

The Amusement Centre of Lowell

Vaudeville Today, Mat. 2 P. M., Eve. 7.30

EARLE CAVANAUGH

In "MR. INQUISITIVE"

With RUTH TOMPKINS

A Movie Musical Comedy With Music and Femininity

Joseph Bennett and Edward Richards

In the Dramatic Sensation

"DARK CLOUDS"

Brown and Denny in "Back Again"

Joseph E. Bernard presents "Who Is She"

KULLEROV BROS. LEONARDI

EXCLUSIVE SHOWING IN LOWELL

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

In the Comedy Photoplay, "IN AGAIN, OUT AGAIN"

SEATS NOW ON SALE FOR ONE WEEK IN ADVANCE

SPECIAL NOTICE TO PUBLIC—On account of the increased length of our entertainment, Matinees will start at 2 p. m., and Evening at 7.30 sharp, until further notice.

OWL THEATRE

SHOWING ONLY THE BEST

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

VALESKA SURATT

The Screen's Best Gowned Star, In the WILLIAM FOX Photoplay

"THE SIREN"

In which Cherry Millard enters the opium den, and there she found the man whose life she ruined. If you want to know what happened see this gripping play.

PEARL WHITE

In the Second Episode of

"The Fatal Ring"

The Most Baffling Serial Ever Written

START IT TOMORROW

TONIGHT ONLY—GAIL KANE in "THE UPPER CRUST"

OTHER PLAYS

Merrimack Square Theatre

TODAY AND WEDNESDAY

BILLIE BURKE

In "The Mysterious Miss Terry"

An intense mystery with three young men in love with an heiress, but only one wins out.

ALEXANDRA CARLISLE in "TIDES OF FATE"

A fast moving, thrilling romance.

PICTOGRAPHY—COMEDY—OTHERS

THE JAMES CO.

Merrimack Street, Cor. of Palmer

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

We Will Place On Sale 25 Dozen

Girls' New Fall Dresses For School Wear

Samples from four leading New York makers of High Grade Girls' Dresses. Materials in fine Ginghams, Poplins, Chambrays and Repp Cloths. Newest high waisted effects. Also 2-piece Middy Dresses in the assortment. All sizes 4 to 14 years.

VALUES 98c AND $1.25. JUST FOR THIS SALE...

69c

petition on Aug. 16, Federal Judge Morton appointed Charles G. Bancroft, president of the International Trust Co., receiver, and counsel for the Bacons stated that an effort would be made to settle with creditors in the hope of avoiding bankruptcy.

The Bacon Co., which had long conducted a smaller establishment in Boston, took over the business of the Henry Siegel Co., after the failure of the latter concern some years ago.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF HEBREW ASSOCIATION AND HEBREW TEACHERS

The annual convention of the Young Men's and Young Women's Hebrew Association and Hebrew Teachers of Massachusetts was held in Faneuil Hall, in Boston, yesterday. The Lowell delegates to the convention were: Y.M.H.A., A. E. Goldham, S. E. Rosler, A. Barofsky and L. Buchsbaum; Y.W.H.A., Mrs. Rose S. Goldham, Mrs. Marlon Green and Miss F. Wolfson. Among the speakers of the evening were Gov. McCall, Mayor Curley, General Edwards, Col. Harry Cutler, of Providence, R. I., Rabbi Phineas Israel and Rabbi Abraham Nowicki.

During the meeting session in the day a number of resolutions pledging the government during the war, the lives of 15,000 New England men of Jewish faith were unanimously adopted, and copy of the same was telegraphed to President Wilson.

The Sunday Supplement of The Sun published in connection with its Saturday editions, contains an up-to-the-minute women's page. Have you read it?

Grandmother's Botanic Medicine

In every pioneer home the botanic recipes of our grandmothers for the treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. Every fall she gathered her various herbs; thoroughwort, camomile, sage, pennyroyal, wormwood, rue, etc. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these botanic recipes, and the demand for this famous medicine has grown until over 350,000 pounds of roots and herbs are used annually in its preparation. It will well repay any woman who suffers from female ills to give this famous medicine a trial.

Mr. Hustis' statement reads:

There should be no misunderstanding on the part of the public or of the employees of the Boston & Maine railroad as to the seriousness of the situation resulting from the present strike. The officers of the railroad, and particularly the temporary receiver, are fully conscious of what it involves. There is no thought otherwise than that the railroad must rely largely on these men who have quit work returning to it to enable the road to give the service that is so important to us all at this time.

"It is said that if the receiver had promised that he would recommend to the court a six cents per hour increase, the men would have deferred the strike until the court could be consulted. It must be apparent to anyone who takes into consideration the whole situation demand. The situation is an impossible one.

"Between the absolute necessity of the railroad retaining the men on the one hand and the impossibility of still further exceeding the financial capacity of the road on the other hand, an adjustment such as is proposed would seem to be out of the question unless there be some tribunal which can determine what is a fair compromise.

"In this case, I hope that the court might be so much impressed in this direction that led the receiver to ask for a delay until Sept. 10, when he was informed Judge Morton would return from his vacation. Efforts were made to reach Judge Morton before the strike took place, but it was found that he was on a sailing trip and away from communication. We are still trying to reach him and may succeed in doing so before his return to Boston, although it is impossible to say just when or where.

"It is said that if the receiver had promised that he would recommend to the court a six cents per hour increase, the men would have deferred the strike until the court could be consulted. It must be apparent to anyone who takes into consideration the whole situation

and its possible consequences that some method of dealing with it must be found which will be more effective and more permanent than that.

LARGER ASPECTS OF SITUATION

"The situation is one that should be dealt with in such a way that the larger aspects of the case will have consideration.

"The efforts of the state board of arbitration and conciliation to bring about a settlement are fully appreciated and will be available to the extent that is possible to do so. I feel that the probable consequences will reach far beyond this state and the matter will be one of pressing interest to the federal authorities. How far-reaching are the questions here involved becomes evident if one considers that, if demands similar to those were granted in all classes of labor, outside of those affected by the eight-hour law, the increases in transportation rates required to compensate for the loss for the loss would be so large as to require the most careful investigation.

"In the meantime the railroad's war board has been advised of the situation and requested to inform the secretary of labor as to the facts.

"It seems unfortunate that the railroad is without the services of a large number of its employees and that the employees are losing their wages, especially in view of the fact that any wage increases that may be hereafter granted would undoubtedly be made retroactive."

Mr. Hustis' statement reads:

There should be no misunderstanding on the part of the public or of the employees of the Boston & Maine railroad as to the seriousness of the situation resulting from the present strike. The officers of the railroad, and particularly the temporary receiver, are fully conscious of what it involves. There is no thought otherwise than that the railroad must rely largely on these men who have quit work returning to it to enable the road to give the service that is so important to us all at this time.

"It is said that if the receiver had promised that he would recommend to the court a six cents per hour increase,

the men would have deferred the strike until the court could be consulted. It must be apparent to anyone who takes into consideration the whole situation

and its possible consequences that some method of dealing with it must be found which will be more effective and more permanent than that.

LARGER ASPECTS OF SITUATION

"The situation is one that should be dealt with in such a way that the larger aspects of the case will have consideration.

"The efforts of the state board of arbitration and conciliation to bring about a settlement are fully appreciated and will be available to the extent that is possible to do so. I feel that the probable consequences will reach far beyond this state and the matter will be one of pressing interest to the federal authorities. How far-reaching are the questions here involved becomes evident if one considers that, if demands similar to those were granted in all classes of labor, outside of those affected by the eight-hour law, the increases in transportation rates required to compensate for the loss for the loss would be so large as to require the most careful investigation.

"In the meantime the railroad's war board has been advised of the situation and requested to inform the secretary of labor as to the facts.

"It seems unfortunate that the railroad is without the services of a large number of its employees and that the employees are losing their wages, especially in view of the fact that any wage increases that may be hereafter granted would undoubtedly be made retroactive."

Mr. Hustis' statement reads:

There should be no misunderstanding on the part of the public or of the employees of the Boston & Maine railroad as to the seriousness of the situation resulting from the present strike. The officers of the railroad, and particularly the temporary receiver, are fully conscious of what it involves. There is no thought otherwise than that the railroad must rely largely on these men who have quit work returning to it to enable the road to give the service that is so important to us all at this time.

"It is said that if the receiver had promised that he would recommend to the court a six cents per hour increase,

the men would have deferred the strike until the court could be consulted. It must be apparent to anyone who takes into consideration the whole situation

and its possible consequences that some method of dealing with it must be found which will be more effective and more permanent than that.

LARGER ASPECTS OF SITUATION

"The situation is one that should be dealt with in such a way that the larger aspects of the case will have consideration.

"The efforts of the state board of arbitration and conciliation to bring about a settlement are fully appreciated and will be available to the extent that is possible to do so. I feel that the probable consequences will reach far beyond this state and the matter will be one of pressing interest to the federal authorities. How far-reaching are the questions here involved becomes evident if one considers that, if demands similar to those were granted in all classes of labor, outside of those affected by the eight-hour law, the increases in transportation rates required to compensate for the loss for the loss would be so large as to require the most careful investigation.

"In the meantime the railroad's war board has been advised of the situation and requested to inform the secretary of labor as to the facts.

"It seems unfortunate that the railroad is without the services of a large number of its employees and that the employees are losing their wages, especially in view of the fact that any wage increases that may be hereafter granted would undoubtedly be made retroactive."

Mr. Hustis' statement reads:

There should be no misunderstanding on the part of the public or of the employees of the Boston & Maine railroad as to the seriousness of the situation resulting from the present strike. The officers of the railroad, and particularly the temporary receiver, are fully conscious of what it involves. There is no thought otherwise than that the railroad must rely largely on these men who have quit work returning to it to enable the road to give the service that is so important to us all at this time.

"It is said that if the receiver had promised that he would recommend to the court a six cents per hour increase,

the men would have deferred the strike until the court could be consulted. It must be apparent to anyone who takes into consideration the whole situation

and its possible consequences that some method of dealing with it must be found which will be more effective and more permanent than that.

LARGER ASPECTS OF SITUATION

"The situation is one that should be dealt with in such a way that the larger aspects of the case will have consideration.

"The efforts of the state board of arbitration and conciliation to bring about a settlement are fully appreciated and will be available to the extent that is possible to do so. I feel that the probable consequences will reach far beyond this state and the matter will be one of pressing interest to the federal authorities. How far-reaching are the questions here involved becomes evident if one considers that, if demands similar to those were granted in all classes of labor, outside of those affected by the eight-hour law, the increases in transportation rates required to compensate for the loss for the loss would be so large as to require the most careful investigation.

"In the meantime the railroad's war board has been advised of the situation and requested to inform the secretary of labor as to the facts.

"It seems unfortunate that the railroad is without the services of a large number of its employees and that the employees are losing their wages, especially in view of the fact that any wage increases that may be hereafter granted would undoubtedly be made retroactive."

Mr. Hustis' statement reads:

There should be no misunderstanding on the part of the public or of the employees of the Boston & Maine railroad as to the seriousness of the situation resulting from the present strike. The officers of the railroad, and particularly the temporary receiver, are fully conscious of what it involves. There is no thought otherwise than that the railroad must rely largely on these men who have quit work returning to it to enable the road to give the service that is so important to us all at this time.

"It is said that if the receiver had promised that he would recommend to the court a six cents per hour increase,

ROTH WINS 10 MILE RACE AT LEXINGTON

PITTS SO. ENDS DEFEAT C.M.A.C.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 4.—Fred Faller of Roslindale, starting from scratch in yesterday's 10-mile run under the direction of the Catholic club of Lexington, finished second in a field of 16 runners being but a minute and five seconds behind the first man, Arthur V. Roth. Roth had three minutes and 30 seconds handicaps. He won first prize for the race, but the time prize went to Faller whose time was 1 hour 16 minutes 41 seconds. The start was made from in front of the state house, and the course led out Beacon street to Massachusetts ave., and straight out through Cambridge and Arlington to Lexington Center, to Waltham street, finishing at the clubhouse of the Catholic club.

From Arlington Center to Lexington a stiff grade was encountered, and all the way the roadway was of tarvia, making it going hard. Of the 16 starters 10 finished.

All the runners who finished came in the finish strong, and all were in excellent shape, physically after the grind.

The order in which the runners finished was as follows:

Name and club	H'cap time
A. V. Roth St. Alphonse	1:15:34
A. A.	1:15:41
Fred Faller, unattached, sec.	1:16:37
Carl Linder, Finsbury A.A. 1:40	1:18:37
Geo. Costarikas, Boston 6.00	1:19:39
J. J. Madden, St. Al-
phonius 5.45	1:20:40
A. H. Horn, Wanlesswood 2:15	1:23:50
B. Kania, Lanesville 5.15	1:24:35
W. Wicks, Quincy 5.60	1:25:05
M. Silver, St. Charles AA.
Waltham 6.00	1:34:13
W. Nahoney, Dorchester 6.60	1:39:16

VESPER COUNTRY GOLF

Walter Clarkson carried off first honors at the Vesper-Country cup play yesterday with a net of 73. The cards turned in were as follows:

Gross Hand'n Net
W. Clarkson 73	6 73
H. S. Smith 102	24 75
F. L. Allen 87	18 75
C. H. Tucker 100	18 82
In the unlimited play for the best selected nine holes, the scores were as follows:
E. Crompton 40	8 82
W. Clarkson 34	1 92
J. B. Hyatt 34	1 92
Thorne, Bradford 36	8 93
L. M. Mih 44	5 93
C. H. Tucker 44	5 93
Chester Drury 35	3 93
C. F. Copp 46	7 93
E. F. Woodward 47	7 93
E. K. Atwood 45	4 93
H. S. Drury 36	2 93
H. N. Morton 38	3 95

GOOD BOUT AT ARMORY

A. A. TONIGHT

Frankie Callahan of Brooklyn and Pete Hartley, the fighting Dane of New York, will be the top liners of the big program of boxing to be staged by the Armory A. A. at the Boston arena this evening. In addition to the main bout there will be two 10-round scraps and a six-round preliminary. It is a real fighting card, and it ought to attract a big crowd of fans.

Joe Rivers of Gloucester and Jack Savage of Brockton will fight four rounds in the semi-final and this pair will be preceded by Paddy Owens of Cambridge and Barney Snyder of Roxbury in another ten round battle. The opening number is scheduled to go six rounds and will bring together Sam Billings of End and Charlie Mack of Cambridge.

Pete Hartley was finally decided upon as an opponent for Callahan after Jimmy Johnson squawked out of the match he had held with Joe Rivers. Hartley, who got the award over Ted Kid Lewis at the arena last Tuesday, Johnson was the only one in the big arena who thought that Lewis should have won. Then Hartley felt he was matched but it was discovered that he had an injured hand.

Hartley is rugged, hard hitting boy and will make Callahan fight hard to win. Pete has a decided kick to his right punch and a dangerous accent on his left for any aspirant to the lightweight throne to tackle.

LEAGUE STANDING

League	Won	Lost	P.C.
American	86	48	.612
Chicago	76	49	.608
Cleveland	73	50	.590
Detroit	67	64	.511
New York	56	47	.543
Washington	57	56	.483
St. Louis	50	53	.376
Philadelphia	46	78	.371
National	70	60	.500
New York	78	43	.645
Philadelphia	69	51	.575
St. Louis	69	61	.530
Cincinnati	65	56	.534
Baltimore	64	66	.484
Brooklyn	69	63	.484
Boston	51	67	.444
Pittsburg	42	54	.333

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

American League
(First), New York 1, Boston 0; (second), New York, Boston 1.
(First), Cleveland 9, St. Louis 3; (second), Cleveland 7, St. Louis 6. (12 innings).
(First), Philadelphia 7, Washington 4; (second), Philadelphia 9, Washington 2.
(First), Detroit 9, Chicago 8; (second), Chicago 14, Detroit 8.

National League
(First), New York 7, Boston 0; (second), Boston 6, New York 2.
(First), Philadelphia 6, Brooklyn 0; (second), Philadelphia 8, Brooklyn 1.
(First), Chicago 6, St. Louis 5; (second), St. Louis 2, Chicago 0.
(First), Pittsburg 8, Cincinnati 0; (second), Pittsburg 6, Cincinnati 3.

GAMES TOMORROW

American League
New York at Boston.
Chicago at St. Louis.
Washington at Philadelphia.
National League
Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Brooklyn.
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.
St. Louis at Chicago.

GIBBONS SHADES DILLON

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 4.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul shaded Jack Dillon of Indianapolis in every round of their 10 round no decision race according to sportswriters who saw the contest here last night. Gibbons took the offensive in the first round and kept it, with the exception of the third round when Dillon rallied and won an even break. In the fifth round, Gibbons rocked Dillon's head with left to the jaw and delivered repeated blows to the face, drawing blood and inflicting punishment to the boxer. In the remaining rounds Dillon showed signs of recovery but displayed remarkable grit which kept him on his feet under staggering blows. Gibbons grew cautious in the ninth and 10th rounds but finished with rain of rounds and lefts that sent Dillon staggering to his corner.

M.T. PLEASANT GOLF CLUB

In the heat selected nine-hole contest at the Mt. Pleasant golf club Saturday and yesterday, J. H. Handley was first. Benton Mills and Frank Knappe were tied for second place. In the driving contest Thomas Southam won with a drive of 225 yards.

PITTS SO. ENDS DEFEAT C.M.A.C.

"Champs" Get Jump by Winning First of Series 9 to 7—Record Crowd at Game

C. M. A. C. Had Game Cinched But Threw It Away—Comedy of Errors

Pitts' South Ends won the first game of a five game series from the C.M.A.C. in a farcical exhibition before over 3,400 fans at Spalding park yesterday afternoon by the score of 9 to 7.

After witnessing the recent thrilling games between the Broadways and the South Ends, which were replete with spectacular plays, airtight pitching, and other big league features, yesterday's exhibition was a big disappointment. In the recent series, the fans were treated to real baseball, and while the South Ends won the series, they were forced to the limit to come out on top. These games were the kind you read about, and for that reason, unless the C.M.A.C. team improves the present series will be a big failure from the spectators' viewpoint.

Largest Crowd of Season

The fact that the attendance was the largest of the season, and that it was the first "Money Game" that the C.M.A.C. has participated in this season, may have been responsible for their inferior playing, for outside of Constantineau the team "blew up" and after having the game practically won twice, tossed it away, and forced the South Ends to take the victory.

The South Ends, too, were not in their usual form, but pulled together, when opportunities occurred and with the assistance of the C.M.A.C. infield, and some very timely hitting, and excellent base running emerged from the battle on the long end of the score.

Constantineau Some "Team"

Constantineau with the exception of one in which he pitched a magnificent ball game, giving an exhibition that with any kind of decent support would have brought victory to his side. He had great control, and a fine assortment of shots, and while he is a good "ball team," it was a physical impossibility for him to play nine positions and beat a team like the South Ends, without some help. The game was still in its infancy when "Connie" realized that it was up to him to stave off defeat and literally threw the ball off to do so, and after apparently succeeding twice, his teammates spilled the beans, by having the ball around like a bunch of maiden ladies trying to hit an American dodger. The ball went everywhere, but where they should go, ten errors on the part of the team will testify. "Connie" struck out ten.

Devlin Sent to Showers

Devlin, the usual steady twirler of the South Ends, was not up to the standard, and after allowing nine hits in five and a third inning, was sent to the showers, and "Big Feller" Smith came in. Smith went in "cold," and after walking two, forcing one run, got properly warmed up, and pitched a great game. He did not allow a hit, during his stay on the mound, and in the seventh and ninth retired the side in order.

The greatest weak spots on the C.M.A.C. team were second base, first base, short stop and catch, and these men were called upon to do undignified work by the players. Only one was knocked to the C.M.A.C. outfield, this to Marcotte, and he did the right thing, so in passing the team the outfield should escape, for the other two men didn't have a chance.

Team Work Brought Victory

Yesterday's victory was another tribute to team work, intelligent base running, and timely hitting. The South Ends, with the exception of these malfunctions and despite poor pitching, their superiority in the other departments was sufficient to stamp them winners.

Team Work Brought Victory

Yesterday's victory was another tribute to team work, intelligent base running, and timely hitting. The South Ends, with the exception of these malfunctions and despite poor pitching, their superiority in the other departments was sufficient to stamp them winners.

Smith Pitched Well for a Man Who Went in "Cold"

Smith pitched well for a man who went in "cold." Had the C.M.A.C. however, played scientific baseball and waited him out the result might have been different.

While the Crowd was a Record-breaker, most of the C.M.A.C. backers kept their hands in their pockets.

John McQuaid, the South End barber, came all the way from Nantasket to see the fun. Incidentally his trip was quite profitable.

With such good players as Freeman and Hickey on the bench, the C.M.A.C. management made a mistake not to use them.

Devlin was batted out of the box in the first game with the Broadways, but came back in the second and third games and pitched big league baseball.

Paul Clark Is Still a Clever Ball Player and a Power on Any Team.

Smith pitched well for a man who went in "cold." Had the C.M.A.C. however, played scientific baseball and waited him out the result might have been different.

While the Crowd was a Record-breaker, most of the C.M.A.C. backers kept their hands in their pockets.

John McQuaid, the South End barber, came all the way from Nantasket to see the fun. Incidentally his trip was quite profitable.

With such good players as Freeman and Hickey on the bench, the C.M.A.C. management made a mistake not to use them.

Devlin was batted out of the box in the first game with the Broadways, but came back in the second and third games and pitched big league baseball.

Radical Changes Must be Made in the C.M.A.C. Lineup or the Series Will End in Three Games.

After the great Broadway-South Ends series yesterday's game was a big disappointment. These teams should meet again.

NEW SWIMMING RECORD

ALAMEDA, Calif., Sept. 4.—A new world's record of 10.35 seconds for the 25 yard swimming dash was made in a tank here yesterday by George Cunha of San Francisco, at a meet authorized by the Pacific Athletic association. The previous record of 10.42 seconds was held by Norman Ross of San Francisco.

Connell Fans Three With Snack Fund

In the last of the third, Constantineau gave a remarkable exhibition of pitching. After walking Devlin and allowing Duffy and Liston to score, he found three heavy hitters, White, Jenkins and Clark coming up. They did not uncover him, but he forced the three of them to go through a wand drill, much to the delight of the C.M.A.C. followers, and to the disappointment of the South commoners.

South Ends Get Five in Fifth

In the fifth, "Connie" experienced his one bad inning and the South Ends took the lead by piling up five runs. Devlin walked. Duffy doubled to left. Liston did the same and Gallagher, who went in to run for Devlin, who injured his ankle in sliding into third, and reached first. Falls hit to Gallagher, but both runners were safe on the fielder's choice play. Hubert taking third. Parks sent a sacrifice fly to Jenkins and Hubert came home. Morrison shot at 25, broke 20.

Liston shot at 25, broke 20. Lunston shot at 25, broke 18. Holman shot at 25, broke 16. Woodman shot at 25, broke 18. Filburn shot at 25, broke 14. Brodie shot at 25, broke 14. Swift shot at 25, broke 14.

In a handicap match with first prize donated by Mr. Stanton and the second by Mr. Morrison, was succeeded for first place and Stanton took second home. The records of this match were:

Morrison shot at 25, broke 18. Holman shot at 25, broke 20. Lunston shot at 25, broke 19. Woodman shot at 25, broke 18. Filburn shot at 25, broke 14. Brodie shot at 25, broke 14. Swift shot at 25, broke 14.

TAUNTON CITY TROTTING

TAUNTON, Sept. 4.—A large crowd witnessed the malines racing of the Gentlemen's Driving club yesterday. Sweet Princess won the city championship trot. The class C trot went for five heats.

Connell took third on a wild pitch. Clark then put down a bunt for a one square play. Jenks countered. "Connie" fielded the ball and throwing to first hit Clark on the back, and Paul raced to second. He took third on Liston's out. Lyons hit to Hubert, who booted the ball and Clark came home. Gallagher ended the agony by fanning.

Three for C.M.A.C. in Sixth

The C.M.A.C. came back strong in the sixth, and succeeded in scoring three runs, and drove Devlin to the showers. Schobom singled. Marcotte popped to center. Mauchan singled to right. Le Bourdais slammed one to center sending Schobom home. Exit Devilin; enter Smith. The latter did not have a chance to warm up, and he was as wild as a hawk. He passed "Connie" and also issued a free ticket to Chouinard, who replaced Hubert, and Mauchan counted. Falls hit to Duffy, who threw to Gallagher, getting Chouinard at second, but Le Bourdais scored. Falls stole second. Fare made a great attempt to plant the ball over the fence, and gave Lyons a chance to make a fine put out, with his back against the wall.

South Ends Out in Front to Stay

</div

6
THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

SUPPRESSING A NEWSPAPER

There are many ways of putting down disloyalty. One of the most effective and admirable methods is shown in the suppression of a semi-weekly German newspaper published in Cedar Springs, Iowa.

The paper in question was so violently pro-German in its utterances that it aroused the indignation of loyal citizens. The editor was warned several times by the United States marshal to stop his "quasi-reasonable" utterances, but he went right ahead with his condemnation of American policies and his enthusiastic support of the German government.

Then his own readers took the matter in hand. They didn't make any fuss about it. They didn't bluster or threaten. They simply stopped reading the paper.

That was enough. A brief dispatch from Cedar Springs the other day told the whole story: "Loyal German-Americans in the state have withdrawn their support, forcing the paper to suspend publication."

Those German-American readers have earned the gratitude of their community and of the entire country. They have set an example that might be followed profitably in a number of other American communities—and will be followed, we suspect, if the editors who are still doing the Kaiser's work don't change their tone. There are two such papers issued from New York but they do not bear German names.

That Iowa paper has been "suppressed by the censor"—the only censor who really counts—the honest reader.

PEACE TALK CAMOUFLAGE

The belligerent armies on the battlefields of Europe are not the only experts in the use of camouflage. German propagandists in this country are using similar methods to promote their own underhanded work. They do not make military roads look like grassy meadows or conceal railroad lines beneath stage underbrush. Instead, they organize peace societies and councils that advocate democracy and oppose war measures in the same program. They hide pernicious German propaganda behind false advocacy of democratic principles.

Labor standards must be upheld and steadily raised. Every intelligent citizen believes that and is willing to work for it just as he looks toward permanent peace and human freedom. But the German propagandist, who cares little about such democracy, uses it beautifully in his pleas for peace. And many a gullible soul who hasn't the knack of thinking for himself or searching to the bottom of things, is taken in and begins to shout for peace, against war; to doubt the causes of America's entry into the struggle and to oppose measures for effectively carrying the fight to a definite and safe conclusion.

We're fighting this war for democracy. We're fighting it for peace. Don't let the camouflage of premature peace talk deceive you into wavering in your faith in our ideals and purposes or swinging your allegiance to an artfully disguised autocracy.

ICE

Wonders will never cease. Here is a representative of the country's ice manufacturers saying, in a Chicago conference:

"We must endeavor to sell ice to the people at a price that will make it a real economy. In other words, the cost of a sufficient supply of ice to the average housewife must be less than the value of the food that she would waste without ice."

Of course, considering the present value of that food, it may not mean much of a concession. And there's nothing said about saving the housewife enough to pay for interest and depreciation on her iceman every morning. Still, it's something to know that the ice may actually cost less than the perishable food it saves from spoiling.

Our second thought, however, a housewife isn't likely to be quite so enthusiastic about it. This liberal announcement happens to be made just at the turn of the season, with winter coming on. Will the promise last over till next summer?

CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION

President Wilson favors a campaign of education on the war by the patriotic representatives and senators of congress after adjournment. He feels that they can do much to enlighten the people on the measures adopted by congress and to counteract the effect of the sedition sown broadcast by La Follette, Stone, Grinnan, Vardaman and others. Senator Fernald of Maine started the speechmaking on the war and the president on learning what the senator was doing expressed his approval of it and said he hoped congress would soon adjourn so that the other members might address their constituents in a similar way. He also expressed the hope that he himself would have an opportunity to say something to the people. He undoubtedly will. This is a case in which the president will doubtless welcome the aid of Col. Roosevelt who is doing good work in this line.

to Europe should be scrutinized so that none of this important material for the manufacture of explosives can reach the enemy.

A GERMAN UNDERTAKING

The German-agents at work in this country are planning a convention under the title of the People's Council of America for Peace and Democracy. Such a convention, no matter how unrepresentative it might be, would be heralded abroad, particularly in Russia and Germany, as an uprising of the American people against the war. This is but another scheme by German plotters to keep up the semblance of disaffection or opposition to the war. The news is needed to buff the war weary people of Germany and Austria.

THE PICKETS CONDEMNED

The woman suffragists of New York at their recent convention passed a resolution condemning the picketing foolishness at Washington. It is high time the suffragists of every state should disclaim all sympathy much less support of that piece of silliness. The longer a general repudiation is delayed the worse will it be for the suffrage cause.

SEND THEM TO SCHOOL

Commissioner Claxton of the United States bureau of education is conducting a campaign to prevent the employment of children at home when they should be at school.

In other words his aim is to keep the children at school as usual despite any increased necessity due to the war.

The work of some colleges has been largely upset as a result of the draft and enlistments. The attendance during the coming winter will be very much less than normal as a result of the war. Many young college men have enlisted, many others have been drafted, while a considerable number have been called to do special work at home.

ENFORCE THE EMBARGO

It is a fact already apparent that the strict enforcement of the embargo on exports will hasten the end of the war as much as anything else can and perhaps even more. The main volume of exports of food and other supplies to Denmark and the Netherlands finally reaches Germany. This should be stopped as it is only helping to prolong the struggle in which our soldiers will have to meet the dangers of war. It is particularly important also that the big shipments of cotton should be no delay in opening the new Pawtucketville bridge if it is completed according to specifications. If there be any defects, the experts on both sides should reach an

Borax Bill Says
PUT 20 MULE
Team Borax in the water when you wash grimy, old, besmeared overalls, and when your husband goes to work Monday morning, you will make the laundry blush. Dandy for washing wovens, blankets and other heavy pieces.

Understanding in regard to them so that there may be no delay in opening the bridge to public travel.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

The United States civil service commission announced competitive examinations to be held as follows:

Land classifying, (male), salary, $1800 to $2400 per annum; cook, Indian service, salary, $500 per annum; training nurse, (female), Indian service, salary, $720 per annum; physician, Indian and Panama canal service, salary, $1000 to $1500 per annum and an allowance for subsistence; inspector of ordnance equipment, (male), salary, grade 1, $1000 to $2400 per annum; grade 2, $1500 to $1800 per annum.

Sept. 11—Designing engineer, armor plant and steel mill, salary, $16 to $16 per diem; designing engineer, heavy steel mill construction, salary, $10 to $16 per diem; designing and constructing engineer, open-hearth furnace plant, salary $10 to $16 per diem; hydraulics engineer, sanitary engineer, salary, $10 to $16 per diem.

Sept. 18—Investigator in accounting and office management, (male), salary, $2000 to $3000 per annum; senior expert electrical and mechanical aid, (male), salary, $12 per diem.

Sept. 19—Assistant in marketing live stock and meats, grade 2, (male), salary, $1200 to $1500 per annum; field assistant in forest pathology, (male), salary, $1200 to $1620 per annum; dynamo tender, (male), salary, $3.65 per diem.

Sept. 25—Assistant in marketing live stock and meats, grade 1, (male), salary, $1800 to $2400 per annum.

Oct. 3—Elevator conductor, (male), salary, $540 to $720 per annum; clerk qualified as typewriter repairman, (male), salary, $1200 per annum; copyist draftsman, salary, $2 to $3.44 per diem; trained nurse, Panama canal service, (male and female), salary, $3.5 to $7.25 a month; assistant geologist, ground water work, (male), salary, $1200 per annum.

Oct. 3-4—Forest assistant, (male), salary, $1600 per annum.

WESTFORD'S TAX RATE

The board of assessors for the town of Westford have announced the town's tax rate for the year 1917, which is $16.40 per thousand, or an increase of 90 cents over the 1916 rate.

Armour's

Veribest TRADE MARK
PACKAGE FOODS

Armour's QUALITY PRODUCTS

The Domestic Science Teacher Says:

"No matter what the food, Armour and Company choose the BEST for the Oval Label Brands."

And not only this, but to insure freshness, many of our foods, such as fruits and vegetables, are packaged right on the spot where the BEST is grown.

The result is worthy of the name—Veribest—and assures a high standard and quality uniformity which permits us to sell these products under our top-grade mark, the Oval Label. Your own dealer can supply you.

ARMOUR & COMPANY

W. A. Kierstead, Mgr., Lowell, Mass. Telephone 1202-1203

A test of one proves the top quality of all Oval Label Products.

Clearance Sale*75 Boys' Wash Suits

Norfolks, Middies and all the new style ideas for boys. Sold for $1 and $1.50. Now

89c

50 Boys' Finest Wash Suits

Galateas, Linens, Ducks and Repp, all fresh, crisp styles. Sold for $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. All now won by T. Conniff; second, J. Donnell; third, A. Rigg.

$1.69

Putnam & Son Co.

166 Central Street.

Short suit for boys, won by Thomas Conniff; William Riley; second, third, Arthur Rigg.

Throwing baseball, won by Rigg; second, Riley; third, Tighe.

Pat men's race, won by Frank Dodge. Needle and thread contest: Crowley and Prescott, first; McBride and McBride, second; Boyd and Howard, third.

Race for tall and nobby ladies: Won, McBride; second, Howard; third, Koote.

Base running race: Won by Leary, 19; second, A. Rigg, 20; Delgian, 21.

LOST RIGHT LEG WHEN HE JUMPED FROM CARRIAGE

John Koumantatos, residing at 14 Cummiskey's alloy, was run over by an electric car in Merrimack street, near the corner of Tilden, last night, his right leg being cut off above the knee. He was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital where the leg was amputated about one-third way up.

Koumantatos boarded the car at the Pawtucket bridge and when near the corner of Merrimack and Tilden streets signaled the car to stop, but before it came to a standstill he jumped from the car. Owing to the momentum of the car when the man landed on the ground he fell forward partly under the running board so that his right leg was cut off by the wheels. The ambulance was summoned and the injured man was hurried to the Lowell Corporation hospital.

BACKACHE SOON DISAPPEARED

Could Not Do Housework Till Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Removed Cause.

Fort Fairfield, Maine.—"For many months I suffered from backache caused by female troubles so I was unable to do my house work. I took treatments for it but received no help whatever. Then some of my friends asked why I did not try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and my backache soon disappeared and I felt like a different woman, and now have a healthy little baby girl and do all my house work. I will always praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. ALTON D. OAKES, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of merit?

WE SELL THE Curtainless Shower $7.50 Each

CALL AND SEE

Welch Bros Co.

73 MIDDLE ST.

Here is the New Coca-ColaBottle*OUR MUTUAL PROTECTION against imitations and substitutes.

Its distinctive shape and blown-in-the-bottle label are covered by letters patent—the means that the Government affords for distinguishing the true from the false—the genuine from the substitute.

You believe in fair play in business? Then demand the genuine, bottled Coca-Cola, which from this date will be packed only in this new and distinctive bottle.

Drink Coca-Cola in Bottles

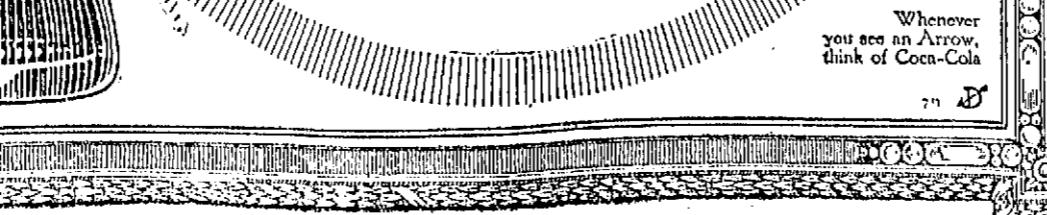

Keep a case in your home.

Order from your dealer.

Delicious and Refreshing

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY
Atlanta, Ga.

Whenever
you see an Arrow, think of Coca-Cola

CENTRAL POWERS ASSAILED WILSON'S NOTE TO POPE

BERLIN, Sept. 3, via London, Sept. 4.—A despatch from Budapest says that the Pester Lloyd gives prominence to a lengthy statement emanating from an inspired diplomatic source at Vienna, in the course of which the attitude of Austria-Hungary and Germany toward President Wilson's reply to the pope is set forth as follows:

"President Wilson and the entente are alone responsible for the terrible disaster which has been reached more largely in the purpose of relapsing into a system of impotent and helpless small states nor will it permit itself to be tempted into committing a breach of faith against its allies.

"The demand for a cheap demobilization of Germany is also a time-honored device of its enemies. There would really be no advantage in subjecting Mr. Wilson's note to profound scrutiny.

"The German foreign secretary, Baron von Kuehlmann, always a welcome and popular guest, is today sojourning in Vienna. Mr. Wilson may rest assured that the German secretary and the Austrian minister of foreign affairs are discussing other means than the establishment of new constitutive forms of government for the central powers fashioned after American patterns and dictates. Only recently Secretary von Kuehlmann coined the happy phrase that not alone ought but also right is the possibility in the central entente's politics is no longer based on this. It is not alone our good fortune but as much the good fortune of mankind at large that the entente is lacking the necessary might to commit this injustice."

The declaration the endeavors to establish an error in Mr. Wilson's interpretation of German conditions, and says:

"President Wilson will never achieve his goal. The artificial pathos of his

107 KILLED IN AIR RAID

Continued

by British air forces and anti-aircraft guns as they swept up the Thames estuary to Chatham."

Report "Slight Damage"

The report of Lord French, commanding the British home forces, covering all the ground except that under admiralty control, states that only slight damage was done. The casualties he reports are of civilian killed and six injured. The naval casualties were reported by the secretary of the admiralty and no mention is made of the extent of damage, if any, to naval property.

Italian Air Raid on Pola

Meanwhile the Italian air service seems to have effected notable damage on the Austrian naval base at Pola. Recent reports today the dropping of nine tons of bombs by 30 heavy airplanes on Pola, causing heavy damage and large fires.

Italians Advancing

Press despatches from the Austrian-Hungarian front report the Italians continuing their steady advance in the operation for Trieste in the district south of Gorizia and working further forward eastward over the great Bainsizza plateau. The fall of Monte San Gabriele, the remaining vantage point of the Austrians, aside from their Carson strongholds, is considered only a matter of time as the Italians continue steadily creeping up its slopes.

Fighting in Flanders

There has been no renewal of the

HELD FOR VIOLATION OF DRAFT LAW

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—Three men charged with violation of the draft law were brought here today to await action by the federal grand jury. Carl J. Johnson and Herman Ferberberg, both of Worcester, were charged with attempting to evade the draft, after being accepted, by obtaining passage on a steamship bound for Europe. They were arrested when about to board the ship in New York. Both are Swedish stockmen.

Mario Soto of Springfield, was brought from Chicago where he was arrested on a charge of failing to register.

COMMAND GOV. LOWDEN OF ILLINOIS

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—A vote which served as a test of the special meeting of the city council this afternoon indicated that the 48 aldermen present at the time of the vote 40 were in favor of the resolution commanding Gov. Lowden (and by implication suspending the mayor) for his stand against pacifist agitation.

WILSON STILL OPPOSED TO WAR COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—President Wilson still is vigorously opposed to legislation by congress for the creation of a joint congressional committee on the conduct of the war. Such a proposal was defeated in the senate several weeks ago, but has been revived in an amendment to the new bond bill. The president has written to several members of congress expressing his opposition.

William H. Sutton, fraternal news editor of the Boston Eagle, who recently observed his 87th birthday, has been working on the Eagle for 73 years.

59th Year of the Lowell Commercial College

NOW OPEN

Individual Instruction. A Position For Every Graduate

NIGHT SCHOOL BEGINS WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 5, AT 7.15 P. M.

YOU MUST SEE THEM, ANYWAY BRACELETS

We have just unpacked a case of bracelets, the largest we ever had. There are plain or engraved, with stones or buckles, in fact, a varied lot of designs, so that you may have one different from anyone else.

75c to $10

See them in the showrooms at our entrance.

RICARD'S

123 CENTRAL STREET

THE SERENADE

CENTRAL POWERS TO ANSWER POPE

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The peace proposal of Pope Benedict will not meet with a rebuff on the part of the central powers, according to the Budapest newspaper, Az Erzsi, quoted in a Central News despatch from Amsterdam.

The central powers will make separate replies to the pope, setting forth the principles arrived at in the course of deliberations now "under way" at Vienna.

The secretary of the admiralty reported in the course of the air raid last night the following casualties were caused to naval ratings: Killed, 107; wounded, 86.

Chatham is on the east bank of the Medway, 30 miles southeast of London. It is the seat of immense military and naval establishments, including a vast dock yard, an arsenal and extensive barracks.

The term naval ratings applied to the grade of men on board ship, usually those before the mast.

Russian Retreat Continues

PETROGRAD, Sept. 4.—The Russian retreat in the Riga region is being continued along the coast in a north-easterly direction, the war office announced today.

In the Ussuk district the Russians are retreating northward, having been dislodged by the Germans in the Great Jægel river region. Hostile shins are being laid the Riga coast, the announcement adds.

Germans to Strengthen Austriaus

GENEVA, Sept. 4.—A despatch from Innsbruck says that after several urgent appeals Mista Marshal von Hindenburg has consented to send two divisions of Bavarian troops from the Russian to the Isonzo front to strengthen the Austrian defense. The Skoda factory, the despatch adds, is working 24 hours a day to supply heavy artillery in order to protect Hermannia heights, the key to Trieste.

The Austrian appeal for aid from Germany is considered significant here, especially since President Wilson's reply to the pope's peace note has been made public.

Riga Evacuated Three Weeks Ago

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Riga was evacuated by the civilian population and foreign consuls three weeks ago. This was the news contained in the official despatches surrounded with so much mystery at the time, and over which so much uneasiness was felt.

Official reiteration was made today by Secretary Lansing of a confidence in the strength of Russia.

The emperor has telegraphed Prince Leopold as follows:

"On the occasion of the capture of Riga I express to you and the eighth army, my, and the fatherland's congratulations and thanks. Parosocing leadership and steel-hard will to victory guaranteed this fine success. Onward with God!"

Official Report of Raid

LONDON, Sept. 4.—In last night's air raid 197 persons were killed and 86 wounded at Chatham, it is announced officially.

The victims were naval ratings. Six airplanes took part in the raid.

In addition to the naval casualties, one civilian was killed and six were injured.

The announcement follows:

Lord French (commander of the British home forces) reports that last Division three exemption board will not send any of its drafted quota to the Ayer cantonment tomorrow but will send two men Thursday. The original plan was to send one per cent, tomorrow and one per cent.

Thursday, but instead of this the board will double up and send two per cent, or two men Thursday. Likewise, on Saturday, instead of sending one per cent, Friday and two per cent, Saturday three per cent, or three men will leave Saturday.

The men will be called at the court house this evening for a consultation and instructions and those who are going away Thursday will be ordered to report at the court house at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon and will take the 14.8 car from Merrimack square for Ayer.

FIND BODIES AT OLD ORCHARD

OLD ORCHARD, Me., Sept. 4.—The bodies of Hubert T. Murphy of Lynn, Mass., and Wesley Tibbets of Dover, N. H., who were drowned yesterday afternoon when they were caught in an unusually heavy under tow, were washed ashore on the beach today.

SUPT. MCNEILLIE QUIT CANADIAN ROAD TO JOIN DELAWARE & HUDSON

MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 4.—J. K. McNeillie, general superintendent of the Canadian government railways, today resigned to accept a position with the Delaware & Hudson railroad. He will be associated with F. P. Guelich, formerly general manager of the Canadian lines.

Bright, Sears & Co., WYMAN'S EXCHANGE

Bankers and Brokers

SECOND FLOOR

THE STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Resumption of operations on the stock exchange after the triple holiday was attended by many substantial rallies from last week's final prices. U. S. Steel, the market leader, opened at 110% to 111, a maximum gain of 1½ points. Crucible Steel advanced as much and other industrials as well as equipments and coppers rose 1 to 2 points in shippings and prominent specialties.

Rails were irregular, material gains in New York Central and Reading being offset by the heaviness of Pacific and the southern division.

Excepting the rails, which were retarded by the influence of New York Central and New Haven, almost all stocks were retarded. Texas Co. advanced 7½, Marlines and other shippings 1½ to 3½, Baldwin Locomotive 4 and other industrials and metals 1 to 2.

U. S. Steel extended its gain to 111½ and some of the high grade specialties, including industrial alcohol, registered further advances with motors. Prices reacted fractionally at noon on the 6 per cent. call money rate. Liberty bonds were active at 99.90 to 99.94.

Selling of rails assumed the proportions of a liquidation later, although continuing largely according to reports from professional quarters. Investment issues registered lowest quotations of recent years and others established absolute low records. Industrialists broke violently reacting 3 to 6 points.

Prices melted away in the final hour when selling was at its height. The closing was weak. Liberty bonds were quoted at 99.88 to 99.94.

Exchanges

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Exchanges, $535,454,199; balances, $43,966,263.

Cotton Futures

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Cotton futures opened easy, October, 21.50; December, 21.44; January, 21.33; March, 21.50. May, 21.60.

Futures closed steady, October, 21.02; December, 20.88; January, 20.78; March, 20.95; May, 21.10. Spot quiet; middling, 22.05.

Money Market

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Mortgagors paid 5 to 5½ Sterling. Azores day bills, 4½, commercial day bills on banks, 4½, commercial 60-day bills, 4.71%; demand, 4.78-9.16; cables, 4.78-7.16.

France: Demand, 5.77½; cables, 5.76½. Guilders: Demand, 14½; cables, 14.2. Livres: Demand, 7.82; cables, 7.81. Rubles: Demand, 17½; cables, 17.5. Gold, silver, 33½. Mexican dollars, 18. Gold and silver bonds steady; railroad bonds weak.

Time loans strong, 60 days, 5; 90 days, 6; six months, 5½.

Call money strong; high, 6; low, 6; ruling rate, 6; closing bid, 6½; offered at 6; last loan, 6.

NEW YORK MARKET

Stocks High Low Close

Allis Chalmers ... 23½ 23 23½

Am Beet Sugar ... 80½ 80 80½

Am Can pf ... 108 108 108 108

Am Car & Fin ... 68½ 67½ 67½ 67½

Am Col Oil ... 35 34 34 34

Am Hides & L Com ... 56½ 56 56 56

Am Hide & L Com ... 61½ 61 61 61

Am Smelt & P ... 109 109 109 109

Am Sugar Rfn ... 11½ 11½ 11½ 11½

Am Sunatex ... 15½ 15½ 15½ 15½

Am Wool ... 98½ 98½ 98½ 98½

Anaconda ... 68½ 68½ 68½ 68½

Atchison ... 98½ 98½ 98½ 98½

Atchison pf ... 95 95 95 95

Atlantic Gulf ... 101½ 101½ 101½ 101½

Baldwin Locom ... 60½ 60½ 60½ 60½

Balt & Ohio ... 66½ 66½ 66½ 66½

Baltic Steel A ... 108½ 108½ 108½ 108½

Br Rap Tran ... 61½ 61½ 61½ 61½

Cal Pete ... 17 17 17 17

Cal Pete pf ... 16½ 16½ 16½ 16½

Cast Iron Com ... 16 16 16 16

Canadian Pa ... 158 158 158 158

Cent Leather ... 84 84 84 84

Cent Leather pf ... 113 113 113 113

Chees & Ohio ... 57½ 57½ 57½ 57½

Chi & Gt W Com ... 10 10 10 10

Chi & Gt W pf ... 23 23 23 23

Chi & Gt W pf ... 17 17 17 17

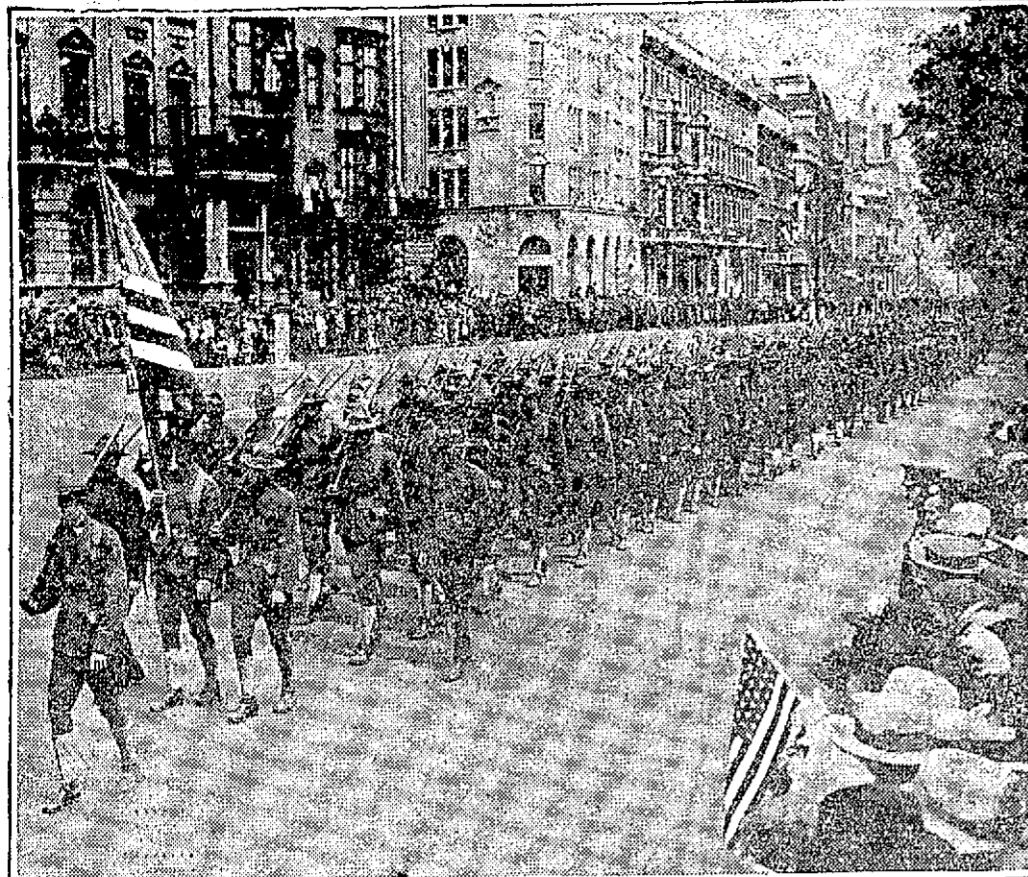

Chi Fuel ... 46 46 46 46

Consol Gas ... 105½ 105½ 105½ 105½

Corn Products ... 20 20 20 20

Crucible Steel ... 69 69 69 69

Danish Carib Sugar ... 274 274 274 274

OUR SOLDIER BOYS MARCH THROUGH LONDON

A bit of London's enthusiastic reception of America's soldiers is shown in the accompanying picture, made from one of the first photographs of the scene to reach America. This is Piccadilly, London's famous thoroughfare, lined with the crowds which expressed their joy over the American boys on that day.

tioned for cucumbers and then treat exactly like peaches.

Are you planning to exhibit canned stuff at the war garden fair in your town, says today's bulletin from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission of Washington, D. C., which is co-operating with the Red Cross in a national campaign to conserve the food of the country. To help you in this work the commission will send any reader of this paper free its canning and drying manuals for a 2-cent stamp to pay postage. Write to the Commission at 210 Maryland building, Washington, D. C.

NEWS OF THE DAY IN POLICE COURT

John Sheehan, aged 18 years, of 42 Chambers street, New York City; James J. Sheehan, aged 19 years, of Worcester and Edward McGuinness, aged 18 years, of 12 Berkshire street, Albany, N. Y., were this morning sentenced to two months each in jail after being found guilty of unlawfully taking and driving away an automobile belonging to Joseph M. McGarry, manager of the Boston Auto Supply Co., in Bridge street.

Mr. McGarry left a Ford runabout

outside his store about eight o'clock Saturday night and at 11 o'clock when he went to look for it found it missing. He immediately reported the matter to the police and in a very short time the machine was located and the three boys, above mentioned, were on their way to the police station.

When Capt. Atkinson learned of the break he kept the telephones on the different routes out of Lowell busy and among those whom he noticed were the police at Lakeview park. Shortly before midnight Capt. Atkinson, who was on duty, heard an automobile coming along the road, the lights on the machine being extinguished. Becoming suspicious they shouted for the driver to stop but instead of doing so he was told the speed of the car was increasing. As he was passing the officers Patrolineau and McElroy jumped on the running board and the machine was brought to a stop. Patrolman Judge came to his assistance and two of the boys were handcuffed while the other was told to turn the machine around and start back for Lowell.

They were taken to the police station where it was found they had been arrested at the cannery in Ayer, and took the machine with the intention of going to Ayer to get some money which was due them and then return the machine.

In court this morning the boys explained that they had been working at Ayer for four days, were week, and that there was money due them. They left the camp because they were tired of the work, but Saturday night decided to return and get their money. One of the defendants said they had tried to engage machines but owing to their age they were unable to secure one and finally had decided to take one, get some money and then return to their city and settle with the owner.

When asked what they were doing in the vicinity of Lakeview when it was their intention to go to Ayer, they said that they had become confused in the roads and got lost.

The court, after considering the testimony offered, found all three guilty and each was sentenced to two months in jail.

A Slight Misunderstanding

There was a lively mixup in Cross street near the corner of Adams street Saturday night and as a result Joseph Kimerick and Joseph Ludwig were in court, each charged with assault and battery on the other.

According to the testimony offered the pair had some trouble two weeks ago and according to Kimerick, Ludwig met him Saturday night in Cross street and had a knife in his hand and tried to stab him. Kimerick said he put up his right arm to protect himself and received several knife blows in the arm with a pin. Both the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Ripe Plums.—Take large ripe plums, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind.—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as mon-

key as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as monkey as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot plums in heated jars, fill up with hot syrup in which they were stewed, put on rubber sealers.

Rhubarb—Take large ripe

rhubarb, yellow not firm, put into strings the size of one's index finger, and about 3 inches long, and parboil to take away the rank flavor. It is suggested that blanching in boiling water for 3 to 5 minutes and dipping in cold water might replace parboiling. Then treat exactly like peaches.

Watermelon Rind—Peel off green part leaving only the white, and cut into pieces about an inch and one-half or two inches square. Parboil as mon-

key as possible.

Wadsworth—Wash the plums and pick a few holes in each with a pin. Boil the sugar, vinegar and spices in the same proportion as for peaches all together for about five minutes, then add plums and stew until tender. Pour hot

PROTEST PRES. WILSON'S REPLY TO POPE

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 4.—According to advice received here from Bremen, President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals was the occasion of a demonstration on the bourse there yesterday. After a speech by Herr Fabrius, president of the chamber of commerce it was resolved to send the following to the emperor:

"Bremen merchants raise an indignation protest against President Wilson's hypocritical reply to the pope, in which he professes to combat the German government in order to drive the American people, with whom Germany never had a quarrel into a war which they reject. It is an impudent and brazen attempt to sow dissension between the government and the people in the German nation, while by British arbitrariness our non-combatants, children and women are cut off from all outside supplies in order to exhaust the nation by hunger."

"This attempt can only fill with indignation and contempt German merchants who have had the opportunity in foreign lands to compare German with foreign conditions. In this hour Bremen merchants pledge themselves to unalterable allegiance to your majesty, bearer as the empire's guardian of the imperial crown, re-won after centuries of long struggles by the United German people in 1871. They again declare their unalterable confidence and belief in a victorious outcome of this righteous war of defense."

In the course of his speech President Fabrius said no other enemy utterance had evoked such wrath in every German heart as President Wilson's note in which the most sacred rights of the German nation were assailed.

A demonstration also was held on the Hamburg bourse, where resolutions similar to those adopted in Bremen were passed.

CLOSING OF Y.W.C.A. CAMP SHOWS SPLENDID RESULTS OF SUMMER'S WORK

The closing of the summer season at Camp Faenza conducted by the Y.W.C.A. on the banks of the Merrimack river at Tyngsboro took place yesterday and the event proved very enjoyable. There were about 50 young women who participated in the exercises and all were unanimous in saying the affair was the best ever.

In the afternoon sporting events of all kinds were conducted and a feature of the program was a swimming exhibition, which showed the remarkable results of the summer's work. Boat racing and tennis were also in order and the events proved very enjoyable. The most spectacular event of the afternoon was the demonstration of life saving under the direction of Miss Washburn, physical director at the camp. Standing in the water in mid-camp, two girls showed the various movements which may be used in different kinds of emergencies. The two girls, Miss Dorothy Flennings and Miss Mildred Cunningham, then jumped overboard and did the surprising act under water, swimming suits being available under supervision of the camp.

On the day's program closed with a campfire supper and the singing of the "Euna" songs. The summer camp has been under the direction of Mrs. A. D. Sargent, chairman of the camp committee; Miss Eva Powers, washroom leader; and Miss Alice Powers, producer. Very shortly it was announced that Miss Washburn will soon leave Lowell to assume the duties of physical director at the Cambridge Y.W.C.A.

MORTALITY OF LOWELL

For the week ending, Sept. 1: Population, 107,075; total deaths, 27; deaths under five, 13; infectious diseases, 1; acute lung diseases, 1; tuberculosis, 1.

Death rate: 17.32 against 17.82, 17.53 for previous two weeks. Infectious diseases reported: Diphtheria, 7; typhus fever, 1; cerebral spinal meningitis, 1; tuberculosis, 4.

Board of Health.

MATRIMONIAL

Curtis V. Ordway of Cambridge and Miss Bessie Althea Fowler of North Billerica were married yesterday at the parsonage of the First Congregational Church by Rev. Mr. W. Mullins. The couple were attended by George F. Byron and Miss Cora S. Maxwell of Billerica. After Oct. 1 the couple will make their home in Cambridge.

Crocker-Carlin—James H. Crocker and Miss Mildred E. Carlin, both of Tyngsboro, were married Sunday afternoon at the parsonage of the Highland M. E. church by Rev. H. I. Bailey. The couple were unattached.

Moore-McCloskey—Herbert C. Moore and Miss Mary M. McCloskey were married yesterday noon at the First Baptist church parsonage by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Archibald. The bride wore white crepe de chine and carried bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Anna Marie of New York, who wore blue satin and carried roses and sweet peas. The best man was Harry Ryan of New York. After a tour of the White mountains the couple will return to the home of the bride, 72 Grand street, where, on Sept. 8 a reception will be tendered them.

Gallagher-Cote—A pretty wedding took place Sunday evening at St. William's church, Dorchester, when Sergeant F. P. Gallagher of the State S. P. flight auxiliary stationed at Somerville, Mass., and Mrs. C. J. Cote, of 36 Main street, were united in the bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. J. Mahoney. The bride wore silk taffeta with picture hat to match, while the groom was dressed in his military uniform. At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at the home of a brother of the groom, Patrolman William J. Gallagher, 102 Saxton street, Dorchester. After a brief honeymoon trip the groom will return to his military duties, while the bride will make her home at 393 Dorchester avenue, Dorchester.

Bolton—The funeral of George F. Bolton, son of Frank and Mrs. Bolton, took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home of his parents, 210 Hall street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

Lacerette—The funeral of Theresa Lacerette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacerette, took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his parents, 210 Hall street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

Duchesne—The funeral of Arthur Duchesne, son of Arthur and Leda Duchesne, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his parents, 15 Jacques street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

Tsihidas—The funeral of George Tsihidas, son of George and Sophia Tsihidas, took place yesterday morning at 10:45 o'clock from the home of his parents, and services were held at 11 o'clock in the Greek Orthodox church. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

McNaughton—The funeral of Mrs. Donald McNaughton was held from the rooms of Undertaker Geo. W. Hough, 11 Branch street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Henry L. Bailey, pastor of the Highland M. E. church. Burial was in the family lot in the Sherburne cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

Alvias—The funeral of Vera Alvias took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of her parents, John and Maria Alvias, 146 Tilden street. At 3:30 o'clock services were held in St. Anthony's church, Rev. John Perry officiating. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough, Sons had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Bolton—The funeral of George F. Bolton, son of Frank and Mrs. Bolton, took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home of his parents, 210 Hall street, and was largely attended by friends and relatives.

Deacon Silas Coburn—Deacon Silas Coburn of the Hillside church officiated. Burial took place in the Coburn cemetery in Pelham, N. H. Undertaker George M. Eastman had charge of the arrangements.

French—The funeral of Robert V. French, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. J. French, was held from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Emborg, 225 Princeton street, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Apollinaris P. Curini, rector of St. Anne's Episcopal church. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Henley.

O'Neill—The funeral of Cornelius O'Neill took place yesterday morning from his home, 452 Fletcher street, at 11:30 o'clock and was largely attended. At St. Patrick's church at 9:45 o'clock a funeral mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Curini. The bearers were Messrs. P. Keay, Henry Johnson, Joseph Keay and Cornelius O'Neill. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were recited by Fr.

DEATHS

BOLTON—George F. Bolton, aged 5 months and 15 days, died Sunday at the Lowell General hospital. He leaves his parents, Frank and Clara Bolton, at 25 Byo street.

Picard—Bazil Picard, aged 74 years, died Sunday at his home, 74 Fisher street. He leaves four daughters, Adeline, Cecile, Loretta Picard and Mrs. Arthur Dupuis.

HOLTON—Miss Jennie Holton, an old resident of this city, died Monday at the Chelmsford street hospital. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FALMER—Miss Rose Falmer, aged 46 years, former resident of this city, died yesterday at the Worcester State hospital. The body was brought to the rooms of Undertakers Amedee Archambault & Sons, this city.

BUCKLEY—George Buckley died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louise Morgan, 747 Pleasant street. He was aged 70 years, 11 months and 19 days. His wife, Mrs. Boyle, is survived by another daughter, Miss Annie Buckley and by two grandchildren, Doris and Natalie Boyle.

PERKINS—The many friends of Mrs. J. O. Perkins of Auburndale, formerly of this city, will be grieved to learn of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Edmund E. Perkins, who died last November, X. She was buried in her husband, John E. Perkins' two sons, Armand and Earle; her mother, and a sister in the west, and two brothers. The body will be brought to this city for burial.

MCARTHY—Mrs. Sabina McCarthy, wife of Dominic McCarthy, a well known resident of St. Patrick's parish, died yesterday morning at her home, 276 St. Patrick's street. She leaves her husband, Rev. Patrick J. McCarthy, three sisters, Mary and Catherine Manning and Mrs. Catherine Manning, the latter of Worcester.

MANNING—Dennis Manning, a well known resident of Centralville, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 82 Lakeview avenue. He is survived by his wife, John (Mollie) Manning; four sons, John, Robert and Anna, Harry and Julia Manning; two brothers, Thomas and John; three sisters, Mary and Catherine Manning and Mrs. Mary Bryne and brother, Hugh, in Ireland, and several nieces and nephews.

LAFFERRIERE—The funeral of David Lafferriere took place this morning from the home of his son, 21 West Fifth avenue. Solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Julian Racette, O.M.I. assisted by Rev. E. Turcotte, O.M.I. as deacon and Rev. Joseph Helduc, O.M.I. as sub-deacon. The bearers were Rev. I. Leterrier, M. Shepard, Francis Chandonnet, Thomas Bois, Napoleon Rondina and Edward Belanger. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Athanase Marion, O.M.I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers Amedee Archambault & Sons.

DENOIS—Ephrem, aged 2 years, 1 month and 1 day, died Sunday at the home of his parents, Arthur and Evelyn Dubois, 61 Colburn street. Burial took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Joseph's cemetery, under the direction of Undertakers Amedee Archambault & Sons.

LAFFERRIERE—David Laferriere, aged 53 years, residing at 51 East Bedford, died Saturday morning at his home, 288 Plain street. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Interment will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. Friends will please omit flowers.

CHONIN—Mrs. Margaret J. Chonin, a well known and highly respected resident of the Sacred Heart parish, died early Sunday morning at her home, 272 Bedford street, after a long illness. She leaves her husband, Rev. Patrick J. Chonin, two sons, James and Joseph Manning and Mrs. James E. Mahoney of Cambridge, and one son, James H. Chonin. She was a member of the Holy Rosary society of the Sacred Heart church.

COGGESHALL—Wills Hayden Coggshall died Sunday morning at 566 Chelmsford street, after a long illness, at the age of 52 years, 11 months and 27 days. Mr. Coggshall was a member of New Bedford Lodge 73, F.P.O. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertaker William H. Saunders, 217 Appleton street.

FUNERAL NOTICES

CROXON—The funeral of Mrs. Margaret J. Cronin will take place Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from the home late, 288 Plain street. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Interment will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. Friends will please omit flowers.

DAM—Charles A. Dam, a former resident of Lowell, died suddenly last Friday at his home, 20 Newbury st. Worcester. At the time he had been an overseer in the Massachusetts mills of the Lowell factory. Of recent years he was a state inspector of factories. His age was 75 years, 10 months. Besides his wife, he is survived by one son.

BOYLE—Elmer Boyle, aged 11 months, beloved child of William and Mary Mealey Boyle, died this morning at the home of her parents, 110 South Walker street.

O'HARE—Mary J. O'Hare, a well known resident of this city, died this morning at her late home, 9 Elmwood street. The deceased had been employed by the U. S. Cartridge Co. for the past 27 years. She leaves to mourn her loss her mother, Mrs. O'Hare and Frank J. O'Hare, of Cambridge, and Frank J. O'Hare, of Cambridge, Mass. Funeral notice later.

FUNERALS

COGGESHALL—The body of Wills Hayden Coggshall was sent yesterday afternoon to New Bedford, Mass., where funeral services were held and burial took place. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

BERGERON—The funeral of Marcel Bergeron, son of Ernest and Anna Bergeron, took place Saturday afternoon at the home of his parents, 2 Endicott street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

LACERTE—The funeral of Theresa Lacerette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacerette, took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his parents, 210 Hall street. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

OHARE—The funeral of Arthur O'Hare, son of Arthur and Leda O'Hare, took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his parents, 15 Jacques street. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough, Sons in charge.

MANNING—The funeral of Dennis Manning will take place Thursday morning from his home, 822 Bedford, at 9:30 o'clock. The mass of requiem will be at St. Michael's church at 10 o'clock. Interment will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

RABBITT—The funeral of Patrick Rabbitt will take place on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons. High mass of requiem will be sung at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough, Sons.

NOYLES—The funeral of Elmer Boyle will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his parents, William and Mary Mealey Boyle, 110 South Walker street. Interment will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough, Sons in charge.

McCarthy—The funeral of Mrs. Sabina McCarthy will take place Wednesday morning from the home of her parents, John and Anna McCarthy, 830 South Walker street. Interment will be in St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in St. Patrick's cemetery. Undertakers F. H. Sullivan.

TSIHIDAS—The funeral of George Tsihidas, son of George and Sophia Tsihidas, took place yesterday morning at 10:45 o'clock from the home of his parents, 15 Jacques street. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

TSIHIDAS—The funeral of George Tsihidas, son of George and Sophia Tsihidas, took place yesterday morning at 10:45 o'clock from the home of his parents, 15 Jacques street. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

McNAUGHTON—The funeral of Mrs. Donald McNaughton was held from the rooms of Undertaker Geo. W. Hough, 11 Branch street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Henry L. Bailey, pastor of the Highland M. E. church. Burial was in the family lot in the Sherburne cemetery, under the direction of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

Deacon Silas Coburn—Deacon Silas Coburn of the Hillside church officiated. Burial took place in the Coburn cemetery in Pelham, N. H. Undertaker George M. Eastman had charge of the arrangements.

French—The funeral of Robert V. French, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. J. French, was held from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Emborg, 225 Princeton street, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Apollinaris P. Curini, rector of St. Anne's Episcopal church. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Henley.

O'Neill—The funeral of Cornelius O'Neill took place yesterday morning from his home, 452 Fletcher street, at 11:30 o'clock and was largely attended. At St. Patrick's church at 9:45 o'clock a funeral mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Curini. The bearers were Messrs. P. Keay, Henry Johnson, Joseph Keay and Cornelius O'Neill. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were recited by Fr.

The funeral was under the direction of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons.

ANDREWS—The funeral of Mrs. Anna M. Andrews was held from her home at Tyngsboro. Saturday. The service was conducted by Rev. Apollinaris E. Grannis, rector of St. Anne's Episcopal church. The bearers were Messrs. William Blanchard, Daniel Shen, Elmer Queen and Charles Worcester. Burial was in the family lot in the Thompson cemetery at Tyngsboro, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Mr. Grannis.

CLUB—Bag lost Monday night on Fitchburg road. Reward if returned to 47 Blue St.

months' vacation at the White Mountain.

BRADY—The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Brady took place Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock from her home, 552 Broad Street, while it was largely attended. At St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock.

BUCKLEY—George Buckley died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louise Morgan, 747 Pleasant street. He was aged 70 years, 11 months and 19 days. His wife, Mrs. Boyle, is survived by another daughter, Miss Annie Buckley and by two grandchildren, Doris and Natalie Boyle.

PERKINS—The many friends of Mrs. J. O. Perkins of Auburndale, formerly of this city, will be grieved to learn of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Edmund E. Perkins, who died last November, X. She was buried in her husband, John E. Perkins' two sons, Armand and Earle; her mother, and a sister in the west, and two brothers. The body will be brought to this city for burial.

MCARTHY—Mrs. Sabina McCarthy, wife of Dominic McCarthy, a well known resident of St. Patrick's parish, died yesterday morning at her home, 276 St. Patrick's street. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Julian Racette, O.M.I.

GOULD—Rimmed eyeglasses, in black case, lost Wednesday between Gorham and England st. Reward if returned to 19 England st.

PRINCETON—Bazil Picard, aged 74 years, died Sunday at his home, 74 Fisher street. He leaves four daughters, Adeline, Cecile, Loretta Picard and Mrs. Arthur Dupuis.

GERMANS CAPTURE RIGA RUSSIANS IN FLIGHT

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Germans have captured Riga, chief gateway on the road to Petrograd.

Again part of the Russian army refused to fight, and fled to the north when the Germans who had crossed the wide Dvina river at Uxkull delivered repeated attacks toward the city.

The Russian artillery, true to its tradition, made every effort to close the breach, and loyal infantry made vigorous counter attacks, but could not stem the flood.

With the enemy sweeping all before him toward the city from the south west the situation became hopeless, and the order was given to abandon the city. Military forces and civilians in full flight were streaming northward toward the Russian capital, burning villages and laying waste the country as they ran.

Prize of Great Value

So great and sudden a triumph has fallen to German arms since Warsaw's capture. Lille, the big French city, like Warsaw and Bucharest, has no commanding strategic value, and Antwerp was from the first closed by Dutch neutrality and the blockade.

Riga, with its deep gulf, gives a powerful basis for continued German operations against a foe inferior on both elements. The Russian Baltic Fleet, based on Cronstadt and Heligoland, was the hotbed of the extreme revolt against the provisional government at Petrograd.

After holding on against Hindenburg's ultimate efforts in 1915 and 1916, Riga has fallen before a smaller foe in three days.

Road to Petrograd Opened Wide

The evacuation of the great city recalls the statement of Gen. Korniloff, commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, at the Moscow conference: "If our army does not help us to hold the shore of the Gulf of Riga the road to Petrograd will be opened wide."

While few believe that the Germans will undertake to penetrate to the Russian capital over this inhospitable road, 300 miles in length, bleak and almost impassable for armies, nevertheless, the news is considered serious, for it shows that the Russian army is far from the recovery which has been so often predicted.

The abandonment of the city of Riga became necessary, when, through the instability of Russian regiments, the Germans were able to cross the Dvina river at Uxkull. The German victory is likely to make necessary a rearrangement of a part of the remaining Russian lines, as it turns the northern bank.

Use of the port of Riga is limited by ice conditions that will prevail later, it is virtually certain that all Russian naval vessels will make their escape to the north.

Garrison Yielded Quickly

Germany's offensive on the Riga front began Saturday by an attack on the Uxkull position, following artillery preparation which lasted several hours. The Russian troops defending the river withdrew and the Germans succeeded in throwing two bridges across the Dvina and passing to the eastern bank.

The Russian infantry, in spite of the brilliant action of the artillery, which destroyed one of the enemy's thrusts, could not stop the Germans from taking advantage of this, rapidly developed his success and began an advance northward. Russian counter attacks against him were unsuccessful.

The Russian official account says:

"On the left bank of the river Dvina, to the west of Riga, our troops, toward the morning of Sunday, retired to the line of Biderberg, Medem and Dahl-

In the direction of Uxkull, on the north bank of the Dvina, in the course of Saturday and Sunday, the Germans conducted stubborn attacks, chiefly the front Shtal-Meimug-Skalo-Lau-sia and the confluence of the River Oreg. Toward evening they succeeded in penetrating our positions on the river Jacki, in the regions of Malmug and Skipto.

Efforts to Regain Positions Failed

"Some of the detachments voluntarily left their positions and are returning to the north. Efforts to restore the positions by counter-attacks gave no definite results.

"In view of the threatening situation created in the Riga region the order was given for the abandonment of this sector.

"On the remainder of the front there were fusillades which were more intense in the direction of Vlina.

"Rumanian front in the direction of Einkshau, the enemy attacked Rumanian positions near Gurevile and Varnitsa several times yesterday, but was repulsed with large losses. There were fusillades on the remainder of the front."

Russians Give Up, Says Berlin

Berlin last night announced the capture of Riga. The statement says:

"After careful preparation, German divisions on Sunday morning crossed the Dvina on both sides of Uxkull. The infantry crossing was preceded by a heavy bombardment by artillery and infantry bombardment by artillery and mine throwers. A foothold was gained on the northern bank of the river after a short fight. Wherever the Russians offered resistance they were driven back by vigorous attacks. The movements of our troops are in progress and are proceeding according to our plan."

"The enemy gave up his positions west of the Dvina, owing to our advance. Our divisions are moving forward there also, while fighting with the Russian rear guard. Dense columns of every kind are making their way hastily in a northeasterly direction along the roads leading out of Riga. Burning villages and farms mark the routes taken by the retreating west wing of the 12th Russian army."

"In the Pskov valley on the northeastern slope of the wooded Carpathians the fighting actively revived.

"In the mountains between the Suchita and Putna valleys our regiments by counter-attacks repelled strong Russo-Rumanian attacks. The Rumanians also vainly attacked near Maraschet."

PLAY TENNIS FOR WAR

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Six of the national tennis stars who are playing for the benefit of the ambulance section fund of the National Lawn Tennis Association staged a return engagement in Rochester today.

The program called for a women's single match between Miss Mella Blumstadt and Miss Mary Brown; a men's singles between John R. Strachan and R. Lindley Murray, and a mixed doubles.

"PIED PIPER OF AMERICA"

VISITS LOWELL

Dr. Louis Hirsch, "Pied Piper of America," is registered at the New American hotel and now it is up to the rats whose instinct the professor declares, is greater than human intelligence, to get a morsel or shake the dust of Lowell from their little tootsies for death is certainly staring them in the face.

Unlike his rival, the Pied Piper of Hamelin, the "Pied Piper of America" does not go about with a trusty flute always ready to be used against the rat kingdom. The more modern Pied Piper uses chemicals instead of music in dispelling the rodents.

He's the government's rat exterminating expert and after satisfying the rat family that Washington is a good place to move from Dr. Hirsch stopped them from moving into the town of Lowell, and has a check for $100 to prove it. It was Dr. Hirsch who cleaned up New Orleans when the plague broke out there.

The doctor has come to Lowell with a mission. He has been engaged by several of the mills and others, including storekeepers, to do the exterminating act and he says he will make Lowell a ratless if not a spotless town.

The doctor is also death on fleas and bedbugs. So it would seem as if it were up to the rats to ratify their excuses for existence; for the fleas to flee or go to the dogs and for cockroaches and bedbugs to beat a hasty retreat for the bughouse. Their time has come.

The doctor, as heretofore stated, does not pursue the method of the pied piper, who forced the rats into the river when he blew his flute or cornet. But he claims his methods have the same effect and he promises to sell that the rats will be running out of their holes in droves and obligingly drying in the streets when they have once tasted of his knockout drops.

He also claims the bug killing record. Show me a room in which there are 10,000 bedbugs and I can murder them all in one minute," he said. But he does not feed all vermin the same poison for he says what is good for one is poison for the other.

Dr. Hirsch, in analyzing the rule of Ripping, that the female of the species is more deadly than the male, ratified it.

"The female rat is rater," he observes. "Among humans, the male is master, or has been. But the female rat is more intelligent and more vicious than the male. The male always will fight his mate for the lives of his young, but he is driven off.

"For rat life is merely survival of the fittest. In the rat family the weak die. Only the strongest live.

We never see a blind rat, or one that is lame or hump-backed. A lame rat will attack her progeny. She picks up the little rat in her mouth, shuffles it roughly, tosses it in the air. The young rat must show the mother it is strong enough to face the battles of life, or she kills it."

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,

for those clever pockets—have you an Extra Iron?

And for a quick pressing of Mother's thin blouse,

or daughter's plaid gingham, or baby's sheer dimity,

do you have to wait for a single general utility iron?

If so, phone 821 today for our 2 or 6 lb.

electric iron.

The Lowell Electric Light Corp.

29-31 Market Street

AN ELECTRIC IRON

In Your Laundry, of Course

But in the sewing room, for that difficult seam,